©CLE428739
JUL 20 1918

GOOD LUCK, GOD BLESS OUR U. S. SOLDIER BOYS

Words by LOUISE HOLLENBECK

Music by
JAMES F. LANGAN

Published by James F. Langan & Co.
512 Crown Ave. Scranton, Pa.

Writer of
"IT DON'T SEEM LIKE CHRISTMAS IN OUR HOUSE"
"HER YANKEE SOLDIER BOY" "HISTORY MARCH"

Price 50 cents

M1646
.L

Good Luck, God Bless Our U. S. Soldier Boys.

Words by LOUISE HOLLENBECK.

Music by
JAMES F. LANGAN.

Writer Of { It Don't Seem Like Christmas At Our House. / Her Yankee Soldier Boy etc.

Not too fast.

Piano.

Vamp.

The call for the right, the true and brave, And the A - mid the camp - fires, so far a - way, Lays each bu-gle calls are sound - ing near, To fol-low the flag wher - ev - er she soldier dream-ing of the fray, Af - ter the bat - tles rat - tle and the waves, And to fight for our coun-try so dear, So just say good - bye, to each din, Each heart staunch and true to dare and do, For his coun - try dear, thinks the U. S. sol-dier boy, No mat - ter what's his creed or fame, For he's gone to world and all of him, Give three cheers when the boys come home, For he's ans - wered

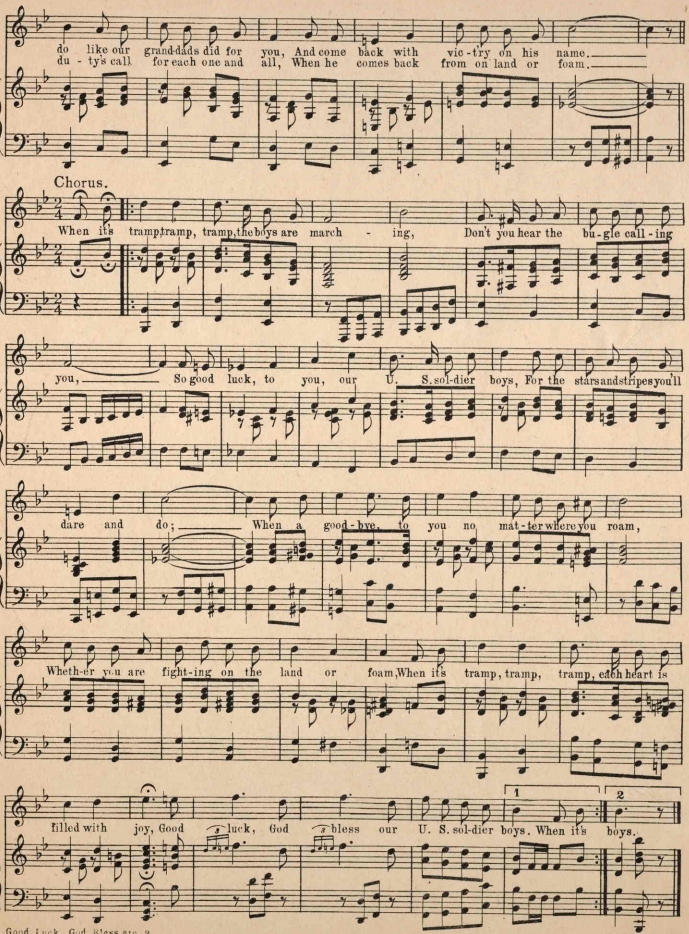
2
International Copyright Secured.

Copyright MCMXVII by A. Louise Baker.
Copyright MCMXVII by James F. Langan.

All Rights Reserved.



do like our grand-dads did for you, And come back with vic-try on his name.
du-ty's call for each one and all, When he comes back from on land or foam.
Chorus.
When it's tramp, tramp, tramp, the boys are march-ing, Don't you hear the bu-gle call-ing you, So good luck, to you, our U. S. sol-dier boys, For the stars and stripes you'll dare and do; When a good-bye, to you no mat-ter where you roam, Wheth-er you are fight-ing on the land or foam, When it's tramp, tramp, tramp, each heart is filled with joy, Good luck, God bless our U. S. sol-dier boys. When it's boys.
1
2

435639