Title:	Adieu to the fields the fountains and bowers, a ballad
Name(s):	Massett, Stephen C.
Resource Type:	notated music
Note(s):	From: Music Copyright Deposits, 1820-1860 (Microfilm M 3106) In bound volumes: Copyright Deposits 1820-1860
Subject(s):	Ballads Songs with piano
URL	http://lcweb2.loc.gov/diglib/ihas/loc.music.sm1845.401390

PDF dynamically generated by the Library of Congress.

No 97
Deposited March 17. 1845
By George Willig as Prop

ADIEU TO THE FIELDS THE FOUNTAINS AND BOWERS

A BALLAD

Sung with the most enthusiastic applause

BY

Mrs. Bailey

AT HER CONCERTS IN BALTIMORE

The Words & Music Composed & respectfully

DEDICATED TO

Mrs JAMES RUSH

BY

Stephen C. Massett.

AUTHOR OF

When the Moon on the Lake is beaming &c.

Philadelphia George Willig 171 Chesnut St.

Entered according to act of Congress in the Year 1845 by Geo Willig in the Clerks Office of the District Court of the Eastern District of Pa.

Pr. 25 Cts. Nett

ADIEU TO THE FIELDS.

Written and composed by Stephen C. Massett.

Andante con espressione.

VOCE.

PIANO.

A _ _ dieu to the fields, the fountains, and bow'rs, Where in childhood my footsteps have stray'd ..... A _ _ dieu to the hills, the mountains and plains, In their dress of soft verdure ar___ray'd..... For I leave thee to seek in a dis___tant land, a new home, But I cannot for___ m f cres f

Rall: a Tempo.

get..... The home of my childhood, the friends that are there, For they Colla voce. a Tempo.

live in my me___mory yet. In my memr'_____ry yet

Adieu to the fields.

2d. VERSE.

Tho' I wander thro climes where the moon - - beam bright Sheds its light on the slim mina - - - - - ret. Through deserts of sand or o'er mountains of snow My home I can never for - - - - get . . . . . Though dimm'd be mine eye and tho' pale my cheek When death bringsits summons to me. . . . . Still, cres f Colla voce.

Rall: a Tempo.

still dearest land of my ear____ly years My last thoughtsshall be giv__en to p

thee Shall be giv____en to thee.

Fine.