©CLE422883
MAR -4 1918

"I MARCH FOR LIBERTY"

MARCH SONG

Words by
C. A. WOOD

Music by
G. H. WARNER

TREMONT MUSIC PUB. CO.
376 Boylston Street
BOSTON - - MASS.

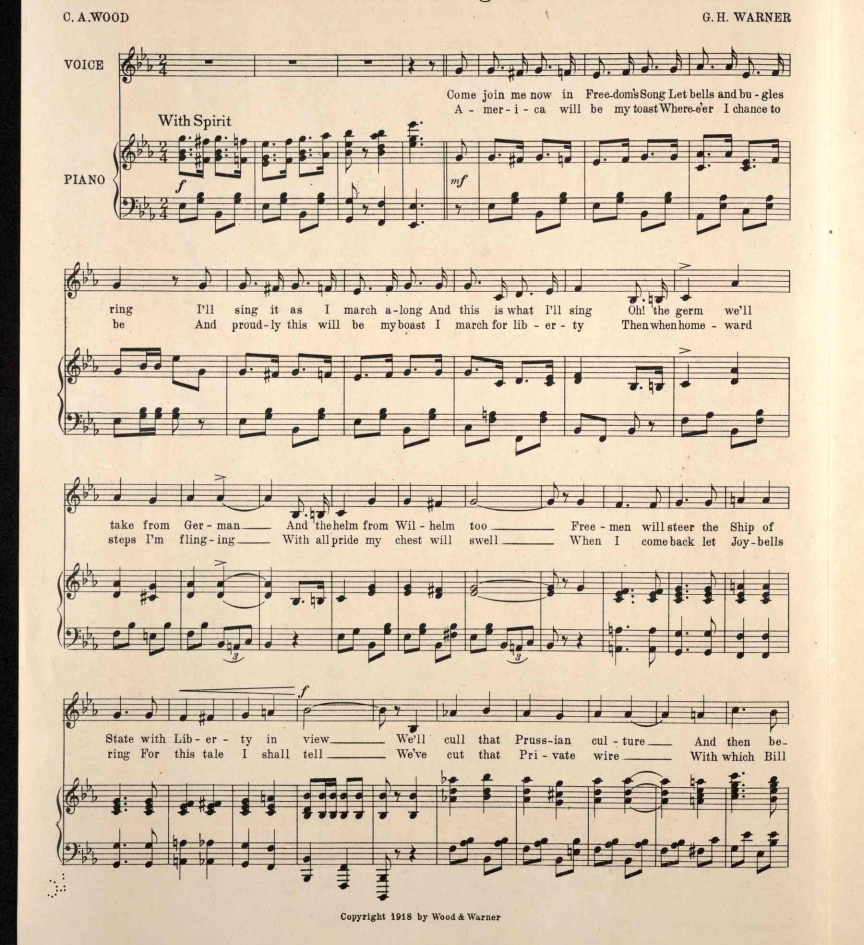
M1646
.N

"I MARCH FOR LIBERTY"

March Song

C. A. WOOD

G. H. WARNER



Copyright 1918 by Wood & Warner

fore we dine — We'll stop that an-cient time-piece — The Watch up-on the Rhine.
talked on high — We all guess where he's talk-ing now And you can if you try.

CHORUS

— Now watch my steps As I'm march-ing — I throw them out just so —

— With a one-step two-step, side-step — As on my way I go — And soon my steps I'll be turn-ing — Right back to old Broad-way — To the

(To Brook-line and Back Bay)

girl in mind that I left be-hind In the dear old U. S. A.

420215