Title:	Absent but not forgotten, ballad
Name(s):	Charlton, John C.
Resource Type:	notated music
Note(s):	From: Music Copyright Deposits, 1820-1860 (Microfilm M 3106) In bound volumes: Copyright Deposits 1820-1860
Subject(s):	Ballads Songs with piano
URL	http://lcweb2.loc.gov/diglib/ihas/loc.music.sm1855.571390

PDF dynamically generated by the Library of Congress.

FAVORITE SONGS for the PIANO FORTE.

No. 1. I cannot part with thee. Julius Metz, 25¢ No. 2. Absent but not forgotten. John C. Charlton, 25¢

New-York

Published by Cook & Brother 343 Broadway.

Deposited in Clerk's Office U. S. District Court for Southern District of New York. August 29th 1855.

457

Miss Josephine Cannon! of Columbus, Ark.

ABSENT BUT NOT FORGOTTEN
BALLAD

Composed by

JOHN C. CHARLTON.

Published by Cook & Brother, 343 Broadway, NEW-YORK.

Moderato

1.v. When lone li ness steals on the heart at gray eve, And
2.v. I could manful ly bear each af fliction of life, I could
3.v. The wealth of af fec tion the riches I crave Though

Entd according to Act of Congress, AD 1855 by Cook & Bro, in the Clerk's office of the 8th District of N.Y.

1 pen . . . sive . ness marks with her im . press the brow, When the world from its
2 brave ev' . ry dan . . ger each sor . . row em . brace, If but this cheering
3 found but by few per haps hum . ble their lot, I val . ue more

1 toils gives a mo . ments re . . prieve, The world to whose yoke ev' . ry
2 heart-beam shall lengthen the strife, Though ab . sent time can . not thy
3 high . . ly than pearls from the wave, Or gold from the mine oft so

1 mor . tal must bow, How sweet to re . . flect when per . su . . ing life's
2 im . . age ef . . face, Let the slave of am . . bi . . tion with wea . ri . . less
3 ea . . ger . . . ly sought, With . . out this our hearts would be drea . ry and

1 game, With no lights a_round but the world's self_ish glare, There are
2 zeal, Court the hon_or of men and their loud_est ac_claim, Give
3 lone, Like frail shatter'd barks o'er the dark wa_ters driv'n, Immor_

1 hearts far re_mote which still dwell on my name, With love nei_ther
2 me but a place in one heart that can feel, And I'll en_vy him
3 tal_i_ty's sig_net has stamp'd it its own, And seal'd it a

1 dis_tance nor time can re_pair.
2 not all his hon_or and fame.
3 gem to be treasur'd in heavn.

Birch & Son 148
Mulb'y'n Grand St.