Manchester and Glasgow Carrion."

Col. Dirom, in his "Plan for the defence of Great Britain and Ireland," remarks, that "in Cornwal there are 80,000 miners, near Newcastle Upon Tyne, 60,000 colliers, and in the counties adjoining to Edinburgh at least 10,000 colliers, miners, and able labourers, so that before a hostile army could be landed upon these coasts with all its equipments, such a body of pioneers might be collected at any of the above places, as might encompass the foe with a rampart which it would be impossible to pass.

WASHINGTON CITY.

FRIDAY, September 9.

The juice of the apple, were the best methods used in pressing and preserving it, as well as in sorting the fruit, might perhaps be rendered almost equal to the juice of the grape. The following method of preserving cider is mentioned in Dean's husbandry. "An experiment, says a valuable correspondent in the county of Suffolk (Mass.) was made in the year 1764. Some iron bound casks of cider were placed in a cellar which was always so full of cold spring water, as to keep the casks constantly covered, with the water running upon them continually. As the water was at all times equally cold, it kept the cider not only from the influence of the air, but fermentations in liquor. In which place it continued from October to May following. It was then drawn off into barrels, and was pronounced to be the best of cider, by very good judges." He adds "In this manner the famous Felarman wine, so often mentioned by the latin poet Horace, kept, being sunk in the river Tiber, which washed the shores of Rome."

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 5.

By Capt. Vickery, of the Thomas, arrived at Norfolk, in 49 days from Gibralter, we learn that two days before his departure news was received that the island of Sicily and city of Messina were taken possession of by the British fleet under admiral Nelson; Toulon is blockaded by 9 sail of the line; 17 prizes have been sent into Gibralter; the Emperor of Morocco has formally demanded the Tripolitan admiral's ship, alledging that the Tripolitans had risen on the remainder of the crew, and carried her to Tripoli by force.

Natchez, August 8.

In consequence of a letter received by his excellency govnr. Claiborne, by mail from the city of Washington, confirming the very agreeable and interesting information of the cession of New-Orleans and the whole of Louisiana (as Spain possessed the same) to the United States, and which his excellency was pleased to communicate to the mayor of this city—a handbill was issued by the mayor this afternoon, communicating that important event to the citizens, and requesting them "to illuminate their houses in testimony of their joy on the occasion"—This request was honored with the most enthusiastic attention, and our city this evening, made as brilliant a display as probably was ever exhibited on any occasion.—A detachment of the Natchez company of artillery, also paraded, and fired a salute of twenty rounds from their field piece.

COMMUNICATION.

Washington, August 5th, 1803.

The glad tidings of a successful negociation, and consequent accession of the island of New Orleans and the whole of Louisianna, having by yesterday's mail been confirmed, the inhabitants of the town of Washington, to evince their heart-felt pleasure at the complete triumph of republicanism and peace, immediately illuminated their houses, and waited on his excellency the governor, to congratulate him on an event so interesting to their feelings. Thomas Moore, Esq. in their name, made an extempore address, in which he faithfully depicted the sensations of every friend to freedom, and the gratitude United America owed our illustrious president for his wise policy and parental care of our rights.—The governor returned an appropriate answer. He then invited them to partake of a glass of wine upon the occasion, and gave the following toasts (to the best recollection of one of the company) which were drank with great cordiality as expressive of their general sentiments.

Thomas Jefferson, president of the United States—always faithful to the interests of his country.

James Munroe and Robert Livingston—a greatful people acknowledge their virtues, and duly appriciate their patriotic services.

The people of Louisiana—we will receive them with pleasure as our fellow citizens, and sincerely hope they wil place a just value on the blessings of civil and religious liberty.

Peace, liberty, and laws—the cement of union, and the choice fruits of a wise administration.

A FAREWEL.

BY SAMUEL RODGERS, ESQ.

Once more, enchanting girl, adieu;
I must be gone while yet I may;
Oft shall I weep to think of you—
But here I will not, cannot stay!

The sweet expression of that face,
Forever changing, yet the same;
Ah, no, I dare not turn to trace—
It fires my soul, it melts my frame!

Yet give me, give me ere I go,
One little lock of those so blest,
That lend your cheek a warmer glow,
And on your white neck love to rest!

Say when, to kindle soft delight,
That hand has chanc'd with mine to meet,
How could its thrilling touch excite
A sigh so short, and yet so sweet!

Oh, say—but no—it must not be,
Adieu—enchanting girl, adieu!
Yet still methinks you frown on me—
Oh! never could I fly from you!

Once more, enchanting girl, adieu!
I must be gone while yet I may:
Oft shall I weep to think of you—
But here I will not, cannot stay!

DANCING.

MR. NUGENT, heretofore a principal dancer at the Theatres of Philadelphia and Charleston, respectfully informs the public that he intends to teach the art of dancing in the city of Washington and George Town. He was regularly bred to that art in France, and has been assistant to Mr. Second the most eminent dancing master in the city of Bath. He is recommended by Mr. Francis, ballet master of the Philadelphia Theatre and dancing master, and by Mr. Quesnet, dancing master in Philadelphia. He thinks it necessary thus to insist on his qualifications, from having seen in various parts of these states men pretend to teach dancing who, he believes, never received a lesson from a dancing master. He will commence school in George Town, on Monday the 12th inst. at Mr. Ritchie's in High street, where further particulars may be known. Commands from the city of Washington directed to him at Mr. Ritchie's George Town, will be punctually attended to.

BY LETTERS PATENT.

What is generally useful, ought to be generally known.

THE undeniable success which has attended the use of

West's Rheumatic Ring,

In the cures of the Rheumatism, Rheumatic pains and Cramps, has induced him to obtain Letters Patent for his invention, in order to secure his property therein, and defend the public against the mischievous effects of spurious imitations.

The following instances of the efficacy of West's Rheumatic Ring, are selected from a considerable number, and submitted for public inspection, to demonstrate the vast importance of his discovery, and in no instance have they failed of success. A few of which are to be had at Mr. Wm. Rhodes's, city of Washington near the Treasury office, at two dollars each.

ORDINANCE

Of his Danish Majesty, defining what is to be observed by foreign vessels in regard to quarantine regulations.

HIS Majesty the King most graciously ordered by his mandate of the 12th of October last, that whenever any accounts are received of the existence of the yellow fever in the United States of America, or when no particular advice is received to the contrary from the minister resident there, all American vessels which are not provided with health certificates from the beginning of the month of July until the end of the year are to submit to certain quarantine regulations, and even if they are provided with such certificates, these vessels are still prohibited from communicating with the shore, before they have been visited by the appointed health physician, and if he has the least suspicion, then the vessel must be dealt with accordingly, in conformity to which, no American vessels during such a time shall be piloted, except having hoisted the green flag.

Which gracious command is hereby published, for the regulation of all concerned. Given at the Danish Royal Chancery, on the 5th of November, 1802.

Extract of an ordinance concerning quarantine regulations, and rules, to be observed by navigators who touch at the ports or coasts of the royal Danish dominions, dated at Copenhagen, the 14th November, 1, 20.

1. Every vessel belonging to our dominions shall have a green flag on board, to be used as prescribed hereafter.

2. Whenever a vessel arrives from a place where there has been contagion, and in all other cases of suspicion, such as having been visited by any vessel from the Barbary coast, having bales of merchandize on board from suspected places, and having not undergone a quarantine since in any other place, or having had any virulent sickness on board during the voyage, then the green flag shall be hoisted at the head of the mainmast, before any communication is had with any person whatever from the shore, and before anchor is cast.

3. The commander of any vessel offending against these orders, shall pay a fine of 500 rix dollars, (400 dollars) if no dangerous consequences ensue from his misconduct; but if otherwise he shall be punished with 12 years labor in the fortification—and should any malicious intent be proved upon him, he shall labor in irons during his life. Any vessel having had communication with another vessel that is suspicious, shall be subject to the same regulations and restrictions.

7. Should such a vessel be under the necessity of immediate communication with the shore, she must hoist her own national colors from the foretop, or under the green flag if she has no foremast.

8. After hoisting the color on the fore top, the signal for a pilot, the pilot shall immediately go on board, but not leave the ship board until the health physician has visited her—and for every day that the pilot is detained, he shall receive one rix dollar.

9. To prevent unnecessary delays to such vessels, as are arrived from places that might be suspected, (such as the Mediterranean or the West Indies) but still are secure and free from contagion, not having been at infection places, nor having any infected merchandize on board, and not having had communicatied with any vessel which could be suspected—nor had any one sick or dead during the voyage; we do order that for such cases all pilot shall be provided with blanks as hereafter written, which the captain and mate of such vessel shall sign, viz.

Undersigned N. commander of the ship; N. arrived from N. and N. W, mate of the said vessel, declare to their certain knowledge that neither any of the ships crew, or any other person, or any merchandize or thing of whatever kind on board the said vessel is infected with contagion or dangerous disease, and the said vessel has not been visited by any cruisers from the African coast or the Levant; and had none dead or sick with an infectious fever during the voyage, so help us God and his holy word; and if this deposition be found false, we subject ourselves to the laws of the land.

10. Blanks of this deposition will be printed in different languages, for the use of foreign vessels that may be subject to the quarantine regulations. As foreign vessels may not always be provided with a green flag, the pilots are bound to have one continually in readiness to be hoisted in aforementioned cases. If the green flag has been used longer than for one day, the pilot shall receive two rix dollars for the same, but the vessel may then keep it.

Any vessel sailing from the port of New York for his majesty's dominions from the 1st of July to the last of December, must be provided with (besides the usual bill of health) a certificate from the Danish vice-consul. Mr. Hammerkin resident at No. 78, Pearl street where attendance will be given.

New York, July 29.
