United States of America.

Fifth circuit, Virginia district, May term, 1803.

Under a decree of the ſaid court, We the commiſſioners will expoſe for public ſale, on the premiſes, at 12 o'clock on Friday the 30th day of September next, that valuable and extensive

F A R M,

CALLED Mount Salus, alias Millthrope, lying in Fairfax county, on Difficult and Wolf Trap runs, containing by deed 550 acres, and by ſurvey 673 acres. The manſion houſe is on a high healthy and agreeable ſituation, convenient to which are ſprings of good water—The houſe is 40 by 18 feet, two rooms on a floor, with a nine feet paſſage and ſtair caſe, two brick chimnies, with a fire place to each room, a piazza the whole length of the front, a cellar 40 by 18 walled with ſtone and divided into two apartments. There are ſeveral ſmall buildings near the manſion houſe and garden. There are alſo a valuable merchant and griſt mill, ſaw mill, diſtillery, miller's houſe and overſeer's houſe. The mill houſe is 40 by 30, two ſtories high, half the lower ſtory of ſtone, the other part framed work, and covered with ſhingles. There are one pair of Burr, and one pair of Cologne ſtones, three bolting cloths almoſt new, and one ſcreen, all now in uſe in manufacturing wheat and grinding griſt. The ſtill houſe 40 by 30, one ſtory high, walls of ſtone and ſhingled roof, the floors planked, the upper laid for malting grain, and troughs fixed round the whole houſe, conſtructed to carry water to every veſſel which may need it. Three ſtills and one boiler can be worked to advantage in ſaid houſe. The waters of Wolf Trap, on which the mill and ſaw mill ſtand, are conſtant ſtreams. The ſituation for country cuſtom, or purchaſing wheat is exceeded by none in the county or neighborhood, not being more than 17 miles from Alexandria and 13 from George Town, where there are excellent markets for country produce of every deſcription; and about 14 miles from the city of Waſhington. The land is fertile and productive, and the ſoil well adapted to received improvement from the uſe of plaiſter of Paris. There are upwards of 3000 pannels of fence on the land, about 160 or 170 acres of well timbered land belonging to the tract. There have been nearly 20 acres of timothy made, lying on Wolf Trap and Difficult runs, 50 acres more may be made at a ſmall expence. This farm enjoys many natural advantages, which are unneceſſary for us to mention, it being taken for granted that any perſon wiſhing to buy ſuch property will avail themſelves of the opportunity of viewing the premiſes previous to the day of ſale.

The terms of which are, one third of the money to be paid on the day of ſale, (at which time deeds will be made to the purchaſer) one third in ſix months, and the other third in 12 months, with the intereſt accruing on the two laſt payments from the day of ſale. A deed of truſt will be expected to ſecure the laſt payments.

Some informality in the decree prevented the ſale agreeably to the former notice. This defect being obviated by the parties, the property will moſt certainly be ſold as now notified.

Captain James Wiley, reſididing near the land, will ſhew the premiſes, and alſo a plat of the ſurvey, which is left with him for the information of thoſe concerned. The title papers will be exhibited on the day of ſale.

CHARLES LITTLE,
JAMES WILEY,

LANDS FOR SALE.

THE ſubſcriber wiſhes to ſell a tract of land ſituate near the foot of the Blue Ridge and Short Hills in Loudon county Virginia, bounded partly by Potomac river within two miles of Harpers Ferry and the mouth of Shenandoah. It is of ſtrong good ſoil, anſwering perfectly well for Plaiſter of Paris, and contains by patent 2340 acres. It is ſo well known as a valuable and fine tract of land that a further deſcription is unneceſſary to thoſe who incline to purchaſe will naturally view and examine it. A clear and indiſputable title will be given by the ſubſcriber. There is no mortgage, judgment, debt, leaſe, claim or demand whatſoever againſt any part, it having been always let to tenants at low annual rents who are raiſed and removeable at will; but the occupying tenants (through favor only) have been permitted to claim from any coming in tenant one half of the depoſit money as may be ſettled between them, for the improvements and good will, the other half going to the landlord. There are at preſent ſixteen or ſeventeen tenants upon the eſtate at very low rent. And it is recommended as an object well worth the attention of any perſon who would purchaſe the whole to parcel it into leſſer farms to the reſident tenants or others wiſhing to purchaſe parts of it.

The terms of ſale are a portion of one fourth paid down in money, or in approved negotiable paper, and the remainder in one two or three years as may be agreed upon carrying intereſt from the day of ſale. Application may be made perſonally, or by letter, to the ſubſcriber reſiding at Warburton on Potomac river, near to Alexandria, to James M'Ilheney near the premiſes, or to Mr. John Janney merchant in Alexandria.
