SELIM.

A GENUINE Arabian HORSE, brought to this country last summer by captain James Barron, in the United States Frigate Chesapeak, on her return from the Mediterranean. The said horse was brought from Egypt by the way of Malta, and from thence to Gibraltar, at which place capt. Barron obtained him from captain Ramsay, of the Queen's Regiment, who intended him for England, but was prevailed on to let him come to this country. He will stand the ensuing season at my house in Dinwiddie county, near the Cut Bank Bridge, on Nottoway River.—The terms will be made known in due time. And whereas doubts may have arisen with respect to his being an Arabian the subscriber pledges himself in case it should be made appear otherwise than has been stated in captain Ramsay's certificate, at any future reasonable time, to reimburse the money the said horse covers at to such gentlemen as think proper to send to him. The manner of his coming, and the character who brought him, are in addition to this guarrantee, as well as undeniable respectable certificates, such testimony of his being a genuine Arabian, whatever interested or prejudiced minds may advance to the contrary, that an attempt to further proof of this horse being really Arabian bred, is thought at this time unnecessary, yet I beg leave to subjoin that he is considered upon the grounds of being genuine, a great acquisition by those who are really acquainted with the character of the Arabian horses.

PROPOSALS

For engraving and printing by subscription, an original work, consisting of two ENGRAVINGS by

JOHN L. BOQUET DE WOISERI,

Designer, Drawer, Geographer and Engineer and by him dedicated, by permission to THOMAS JEFFERSON, Esq. President of the United States.

THE first exhibiting a plan of LOUISIANA, the Fortifications, Suburbs, &c. extending from the city of New Orleans, as far as the Bayou of St. John.

The second exhibiting a view of the City of NEW ORLEANS, and of its environs; displaying all the principal and most remarkable buildings, the Place D'Armes, &c. &c. the names of all which buildings and places are explained, by means of alphabetical letters.

These two engravings will represent all that is necessary to be known, with regard to the plan and view of Louisiana, the city of New Orleans, its suburbs, environs, &c. as far as the Lake Ponchartrain, including the principal and most remarkable edifices.

The plan and view were taken from the habitation of Marigny, and extend as far as the plantation of M. Del Oe.

The author's residence at New Orleans during a number of years, has enabled him to exercise his profession of Designer and Engraver to the best advantage, and he flatters himself of presenting to the citizens of the United States of America, as accurate and complete a plan and view of Louisiana, and the city of New Orleans, &c. as ever can be drawn.

The work for which the patronage of the enlighted citizens of America is now solicited, has cost the author above six years assiduous and unremitted labor and close application, and he fondly cherishes the hope that Americans will extend to him a share of that encouragement they are wont to do on works of merit.

The work being in a considerable state of forwardness, the author expects it will be ready for delivery in about six months hence.

TERMS.

The plan of Louisiana will be 31 inches high, and 21 inches wide.

The view of New Orleans will be 21 inches high, and 12 inches wide.

They will be delivered to subscribes at Ten Dollars for both—and Twelve dollars to non-subscribers.
