The following New Song, taken from the Boston Chronicle, evinces a becoming temper in the republicans of that town. On their efforts may depend the complexion of their legislature for the ensuing year.

TUNE—"Yankee Doodle."

We'r all asleep, the federalists say,
And never will awaken,
But on the next election day
W'ell shew them they're mistaken.

CHORUS.

Republicans in freedom's cause,
Will make a glorious stand sir,
And guard their government and laws
From faction's furious band, sir.

Two years ago we took a nap,
And while we slept so sweetly,
The federalists sprung a well set trap,
And caught us most completely.
Republicans in freedom's cause, &c.

But though hereafter we repose
When distant from election,
Yet never shall our eye-lids close
When Freedom calls to action.
Republicans in freedom's cause, &c.

Our rights—our fathers drew the sword,
And fought and bled to gain them,
And we their sons with one accord
Forever will maintain them.
Republicans in freedom's cause, &c.

London papers have been received at Boston by the ship Warrington, to March 24.—They state that GEORGES had been taken after a desperate resistance; and that generals Dumourier and La Fayette, M. Roland, and Madame Tallien had been arrested.

An election for Representatives of the town of Boston in Assembly was held on the 9th inst.

On closing the poll, the votes were declared as follows, viz.

Messrs. David Tilden 890, Samuel Brown, 892, Russell Sturgeis, 892, Samuel Clap, 896, Dr. David Townsend 877, Abiel Smith 1971, colonel Robert Gardner 844.

Messrs. H. G. Otis 1119, Jonathan Hunnewell 1136, William Smith, 1128, Dr. William Spooner 1095, John Welles 1117, William Sullivan 1105. These gentlemen formed the federal ticket, and are elected. A. Smith esq. was on both tickets. The whole number of votes 1976. Necessary to make a choice, 989. We congratulate the republicans, that the majority of federalism is so greatly decreased in Boston.

United States, District of Columbia and county of Washington.

In CHANCERY, 9th October, 1802.
George King, John Davidson and John B. Evans, complainants.

against

Anne Young, the widow and Samuel W. Young, Elizabeth Young, Susanna Young, Richard Young, John Young and Charles Young the children and heirs of Abraham Young, deceased, and William King and Adam King all of the city of Washington in the district of Columbia, and John Ball, Henry Pratt, John Ashley, Thomas Willing, Francis John Miller, jun. and Jacob Baker of the city of Philadelphia, defendants.

THE bill states that Abraham Young, deceased, late of the city of Washington aforesaid, did in his life time, to wit: on or about the 16th Sept. 1793 contract for and sell to the said William King above named, and one William Prout in equal and undivided moieties, parts of three tracts of land situate in the city of Washington aforesaid called Chance, Hoppen enlarged and Knock, by specified marks and boundaries containing in the whole one hundred acres and an half acre.

That William King, afterwards on or about the 20th July, 1794 contracted for and sold his moiety of the said property to a certain John Nicholson late of Philadelphia, but now deceased: That the said John Nicholson to secure to him the said King the purchase money for the said moiety of the land or such part thereof as he did not actually pay, passed to the said King his the said Nicholson's note bearing date on the 20th September 1794, for 2666 dolls. 66 cents payable 3 months after date, which the said William King afterwards for a valuable consideration assigned to the complainant George King and which hath never yet been paid or any part thereof: That he also gave to the said William King his three several bonds each dated on the 20th Sept. 1794, and each conditioned for the payment of 250l. current money of Maryland, with interest at the rate of three per centum per annum from their date aforesaid, until they should respectively become due and payable, the first whereof was payable the 1st day of January 1795, the second the first day of January 1796 and the third the 1st day of January 1797, neither of which or any part thereof has ever been paid, the two first were for a valuable consideration assigned by the said William King to the complainant John Davidson, the last to the complainant John B. Evans. That Abraham Young in his life time by indenture bearing date the 25th October 1794, conveyed the said moiety to the said William King, and that William King by indenture dated the 31st October 1794, conveyed to the said John Nicholson the said moiety, but that neither of the said deeds last mentioned were recorded as the law directs and therefore are wholly inoperative in law. That Abraham Young having died the legal estate in the said property has descended to and become vested in his children and heirs the defendants before named.

The object of the bill is to have the said property sold or so much thereof as will produce a sufficient sum to pay to the complainants the debts respectively due to them as aforesaid.

And it being now, to wit: this fourth day of May 1804 after publication made as to the other defendants stated by the complainants that Samuel W. Young and Charles Young two of the defendants in the said bill mentioned have since the filing thereof removed from the district of Columbia and from without the reach of the process of this court. It is therefore on the complainants petition ordered that they procure a copy of this notice to be published at least once in three successive weeks in the two papers printed in the county of Washington before the first day of July next to the intent that the said Samuel W. Young and Charles Young may have notice of the said application and of the objects of the bill and that they be warned to appear here in person or by solicitor on or before the fourth Monday in July next to shew cause if any they can why a decree should not pass as prayed in and by the said bill.

By order of the hon. William Kilty chief judge of the circuit of the district of Columbia.
