This lottery has been authoriſed by the legiſlature of Virginia, for the laudable purpoſes of erecting a ſeminary of learning in or near the metropolis of this ſtate. With this view, it is contemplated to raiſe 20,000 dolls. and 2,500 dolls. in addition, for defraying the expences attendant on drawing the lottery. Citizens of the firſt reſpectability have been ſelected as truſtees, and they have pledged themſelves to uſe their utmoſt exertions to carry it into effect. The ſcheme has the advantage of giving to each adventurer, a chance for ſome very large prizes, whilſt the proportion of prizes to blanks, is ſo great as to invite the friends of the intended inſtitution to partake in the lottery, with very little riſque of their becoming loſers. The treaſurer of the ſtate is to be appointed to receive the money for the tickets as they are ſold, and to pay the amount of the prizes to the fortunate adventurers. It is believed that the above conſiderations will induce a rapid ſale of tickets, and the drawing will commence as ſoon as a ſufficient number ſhall be ſold to authoriſe it——which it is believed will be on the ſecond Monday in December next.

THEATRE.

AS meaſures have been taken by the Directors of the Theatre to have that building carried on with ſpirit, ſo as to be compleated by the approaching ſeaſon, it is earneſtly hoped that all perſons who have ſubſcribed Caſh for that object, and who may not have as yet made payment, will make the payment immediately to ſome one of the Directors. Thoſe who have ſubſcribed work or materials—that may not have executed the firſt or furniſhed the laſt, will pleaſe make early application to Mr. George Hadfield, who will contract for the materials, or for ſuch work as may be required.

The Directors have thought proper to give this public notice, that every ſubſcriber may come forward in the manner promiſed at the time of ſubſcribing. They cannot doubt but that there will exiſt a generous emulation among all, to tender their promiſed aid in promoting an object which may conduce materially to the advantage of the city. If however, contrary to their expectations, the Directors ſhould find themſelves diſappointed by any of thoſe who have agreed to furniſh materials or work—in that caſe they will be conſtrained to contract with others for ſuch work or materials to be paid in caſh—and call upon ſuch ſubſcribers for the amount of their ſubſcriptions in caſh, which it is hoped will not be deemed unreaſonable or improper.

Dr. Jacob Hall, of Harford county, of known literary character, to whoſe inſpection theſe Poems were ſubmitted, in a letter to the author, expreſſes his opinion of them, as follows:

MADAM,

I have been honored and gratified with the peruſal of your manuſcript copy of Poems. In my opinion it is a work of conſiderable merit, and diſplays true piety and poetic genius. The paſtoral dialogues are commendable for their novelty, ſimplicity and beauty. The elegies, epiſtles, and eſpecially the "Man of Misfortune," a Moral Tale, are intereſting and pathetic. The Odes and Fugitive Pieces are ſprightly and amuſing—And the whole compoſition ſeems to breathe ſuch a ſpirit of philanthropy and benevolence as cannot fail to elevate the affections, and to mend the heart—And it is to be regretted, that the author's modeſty has hitherto denied the community ſo refined & elegant an entertainment.
