1. To Thee, O Christ, vic-to-rious King of Kings! Our Easter songs of gladness now we raise:
2. Death's brazen gates, unbound for-ev - ermore, Are radiant now with light that comes from Thee!

3. Hail! hail! Thou Victor o - ver death and hell! All earthly triumphs sink before Thine own:
4. O hap - py day! thrice welcome to our hearts, Long bound with sin and shame before Thy Cross;

5. Hail! "Li - on of the tribe of Ju-dah!" hail! What gift is this Thy nail-pierced hands do bring?

SEMI-CHORUS or QUARTETTE.

O'er all the earth the joyous strain up-springs To hail Thee Vic - tor on this "Queen of Days!"
The darkness pass'd—we see the o - pen door Thro' which comes Life and Immor-tal - - i - ty!

mp

All nations now with joy and rapture tell Of seal-ed tomb chang'd to a glo - rious Throne!
O, glorious day! which to the world imparts That gift be - fore which all our wealth is dross.

E - ter - nal Life! a life that can - not fail, All glo - ry to Thy Name, O might - y King!
