Calicoes, Shawls, Pocket Handkerchiefs, &c. manufactured by the subscribers near Baltimore, and sold at No. 13 Calvert street.

TO remove that diftruft often felt refpecting new undertakings, and fo prejudicial to manufacturing attempts in America, they think it proper to obferve, that nothing is wanting in the bufinefs to enable good artifts to perform their work here as well as in Europe. That they have thefe artifts; that two of the partners were bred to the bufinefs in a factory of the beft repute carried on by their father, & long afterwards by themfelves. They truft that while foreign goods are received without a queftion, an unreafonable fufpicion will not prevent their countrymen from giving that trial to their goods, which only can prove their value. Befides a natural doubt, they know that certain interefts, national as well as well as individual, will fuggeft objections to their undertaking. They have no difficulty in faying, that work of the like kind fhall be as well executed here, as in other countries. The colors capable of being fixed, will be found as permanent; the cloths perhaps better fubftance, and the prices lower than of the imported cottons.
