Warm words affection's story tell,
 To greet the wand'rer back once more;
 Oh every tone I love full well,
 And proudly prize my native shore,
 Yet while I listen to each strain,
 And strive from thee my soul to wean,
 There comes a voice that speaks of Spain,
 And breaths the name of "Adaline."

Fair be thy days beneath the sky
 Where golden rays of twilight set,
 And winds that softly murmur by
 Bear sound of harp and castanet.
 My lot upon the sea is cast
 To wander on from scene to scene,
 And some kind will of fate at last,
 May bear me back to "Adaline."
