WHEREAS by the firſt article of the terms and conditions declared by the Preſident of the United States on the 17th day of October, 1791, for regulating the materials and manner of buildings and improvements on the lots in the city of Waſhington, it is provided "that the outer and party walls of all houſes in the ſaid city ſhall be built of brick or ſtone" and by the third article of the ſame terms and conditions it is declared "that the wall of no houſe ſhall be higher than forty feet to the roof in any part of the city, nor ſhall any be lower than thirty five feet on any of the avenues." And whereas the above recited articles were found to impede the ſettlement in the city, of mechanics and others whoſe circumſtances did not admit of erecting houſes authoriſed by the ſaid regulations, for which cauſe the operation of the ſaid articles has been ſuſpended by ſeveral acts of the Preſident of the United States, from the ſixth day of June in the year 1796 to the firſt day of January laſt, and beneficial effects ariſing from ſuch ſuſpenſions having been experienced it is deemed proper to revive the ſame with the exception hereafter mentioned.

THE STUD, of the late Col. JOHN HOOMES, conſiſting of imported & country bred ſtallions, Brood Mares and their produce, for ſeveral years paſt—total about one hundred head. To gentlemen who may feel a diſpoſition to engage immediately in the ſports of the turf, ſeveral fine three and four year olds could be highly recommended, for ſize, blood and figure. Should any of the ſtud horſes be farmed out for the approaching ſpring, the ſale of ſuch will be poſtponed, until the expiration of the ſeaſon. The other ſtock will be ſold without reſerve. The terms of ſale will be one half of the purchaſe money payable in ſix and the other in twelve months, to be ſecured by bond, with approved ſecuries, to carry intereſt from the date if not punctually paid.

A conſiderable diſcount will be made for caſh.

THE Subſcriber being informed that the French Miniſter and other French agents in this country, have repeatedly aſſerted that he had no juſt claim on their government, and that he had been paid in full, for all the ſupplies furniſhed to the ſame, feels it due to his own character to contradict theſe reports and offers to prove to the ſatisfaction of all thoſe, who will take the trouble to call upon him, that for ſupplies furniſhed in the Weſt Indies, as well as for advances made here, part in caſh and part in proviſions, to the French frigates, he now holds bills drawn by the French agents, and which are unpaid and proteſted, for upwards of one hundred and twenty thouſand dollars.

City of Waſhington, Dec 16—1awtf

Painful it is for me to give the following NOTICE,

But absolute NECESSITY compels me.

IN September laſt, I gave public notice to all thoſe who ſtood indebted to me, that my books were poſted and proved; and that no further credit would be given even to my beſt friends; but contrary to my firm determination, that reſolution laſted but a few days, and with concern I ſay it, ſince that period my book debts have increaſed nearly

NINE HUNDRED DOLLARS.

For a perſon with my ſmall capital having ſo much money out, it is impoſſible for me to ſupport my credit, with that punctuality, which is ſo much my wiſh. I am therefore reſolved to leave this town on the 10th day of July next; and retire to ſome peaceful abode where Honor and Honeſty reigns, and where the Upright and Good Man will have juſtice done him over the Rogue and Swindler—for ſuch are the Laws of this Territory, though the capital of America, (and with ſhame I ſay it) there is no diſtinction made between the Man of Honor, who, though Poor, will pay his debts, and the Rogue and Swindler, who retires to, and reſides in this Territory, well knowing it to be an ASYLUM for VILLAINY—the former will call and pay you when able; the latter will have the audacity to ſhew you Ten-fold the amount in caſh that he owes you, and bid you defiance to ſue him; for, ſays he, "I have no property"—though at the ſame time, through ſome employment or other, he enjoys an income of from 5 to 800 DOLLARS per year—this is a "Liberty" indeed, the boaſt of our country! but no Juſtice. As my ſtay in this place will be but ſhort, and as I do not wiſh to leave it one cent in debt, I earneſtly entreat thoſe who ſtand indebted to me to make immediate payment; by which, they will avoid ſuch a meaſure being taken, as they are little aware of. For if I cannot have Juſtice done me, I have this conſolation, that I have a Reſort yet left, which, if they have any SHAME, or one ſpark of HONOR for their characters, they will avoid my putting in force, for a galled horſe will wince.

GEORGE PITT.

N. B. A perſon authoriſed by me will call on them in a few days, when it is hoped they will be prepared to ſettle their reſpective balances.

☞ To avoid the neceſſity of a refuſal, I requeſt no one will aſk for credit, except thoſe to whom I ſtand indebted. G. P.
