PHILADELPHIA

PORTER & ALE, CELLAR.

LEWIS ZIMMER, at his store near the NAVY YARD, begs leave to inform the Public that he is just opening a PORTER CELLAR, near the gate of the Navy Yard, where the best kind of Porter and Ale from Philadelphia shall at all times be procured in bottles or otherwise.

He has also recived from Philadelphia, a parcel of the very best LIQUID BLACKING, for Boots and Shoes in bottles and half bottles—the fine shining gloss of this blacking is so well fixed on the surface of the leather, that you may pass a white handkerchief over your boots without soiling them in the least; in short, it is difficult to describe all the admirable qualities of this Liquid Blacking.

He continues to keep a general assortment of which he offers for sale on very moderate prices.

GROCERIES & DRY GOODS,

☞ Wanted to Purchase a few MILITARY LAND WARRANTS.

Washington city, Dec. 11—tf

TO LAND HOLDERS IN THE STATE OF OHIO.

BY one of the propositions made by Congress to the people of the eastern division of the territory northwest of the river Ohio, when it was about to pass into a state government, provision was made for an exemption, of the lands sold by Congress, from taxation, for the pace of five years, after the sale. That time has now elapsed, as to all lands sold previously to the 30th day of June, 1803; and they will, this year, be entered, by the Auditor for taxation, at 100, 75, and 50 cents per 100 acres of 1st. 2d. and 3d rate land. So, for the next year, those lands sold previously to the 30th day of June, 1804, will be in like manner entered. Every year the system will progress, in this manner, until the whole of the lands will be embraced. The sale of lands, for tax, commences on the first Monday of December.

We give this early information, that non residents may take advantage of it, and, by the like early provision, may save their property from the grasp of speculating harpies.

TH. S. HINDE, and
CH. A. STUART,
Agents for non-residents.

Chillicothe, March 10th, 1808.

It is desired that the Enquirer, Aurora, and United States Gazette, will insert the above notice twice, and forward their accounts.
