20 DOLLARS REWARD.

ESCAPED from the subscriber on the road leading from George Town towards Leesburg, about 15 miles from the former place, a negro man named LUKE, about 35 years of age, 6 feet high, dark skin, two of his upper fore teeth are out; he has a down cast look, and generally speaks in a low voice; his clothes and name he will probably change, I purchased him of Mr. Theophilus Hughs to take to my residence in Kentucky, he has had several masters about Bladensburg, and he will certainly be lurking about that place as he has a wife, the property of Mr. Isaac Barrett near Bladensburg. I have appointed Mr. Everard Gary of George Town my agent, and the above reward will be paid by him to any person who will deliver the said fellow to Mr. C. Tippett in the city jail.

IN CHANCERY, JULY 9, 1808.
Charles Neale,
versus
Leonard Neale, Francis Ignatius Neale, and others.

THE object of the bill in this cause is to obtain a decree for a certain unspecified quantity of two Tracts of Land lying and being in Charles county, devised by the complainant's father, Raphael Neale, to the said Leonard Neale, Francis Ignatius Neale, and others, during their lives, with a provision that they should release to the said complainant when he arrived at age so much thereof with the buildings thereon as should be necessary for him and his negroes to cultivate.

The bill states that the said Leonard Neale and Francis Ignatius Neale, reside out of the state of Maryland. It is thereupon adjudged and ordered that the complainant, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted three successive weeks in the National Intelligencer before the 6th day of August next, give notice to the absent defendants of this application, and of the object of the bill, that they may be warned to appear here in person or by a solicitor of this court on or before the 6th day of December next to shew cause if any they have, wherefore a decree should not be passed as prayed.

FORTY DOLLARS REWARD

RAN AWAY from the subscriber, living in St. Marys county, on Patuxent river, in Halfpone neck, two negroes, Baptist and Lydia. Baptist is a black man about 35 years of age, nearly 6 feet high; he is an artful insinuating fellow, in conversation talks much of his travels; he has been in the bay trade, and once in the West Indies; he has a scar on his breast, short, but the flesh much raised; he has had a bone-breeder on his right thumb, that has been recently cured; he plays well on the violin, and probably may have one with him as he carried one off; he had on, when he went away, a new shirt and trowsers of tow, a blue striped short coat, but I think it needless to describe clothing as they both had pretty good, and they probably may change them, as also their names. Lydia is a low woman of a yellowish complection, about 18 years of age, pretty far advanced in pregnancy, & it is highly probable they may endeavor to pass for man and wife, and also free people, as they well know that there are many now that pass and repass in every town and city in the United States without examination.

Whoever takes up and secures the said runaways in any jail so that I get them again, shall be entitled to a reward of five dollars, if taken in this country, if in Montgomery or nearer home ten dollars, if further twenty dollars, and if out of the state the above reward, together with all reasonable charges, paid by JOHN TIPPETT.

N. B. All masters of vessels are forewarned from carrying the above runaways off at their peril. J. T.

St. Mary's county court, March term 1808.

ON application of Benjamin Tabbs of St Mary's county to the judges of the said county court, by petition in writing, praying the benefit of the act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, on the terms mentioned in said act, a schedule of his property and a list of his creditors on oath as far as he can ascertain them being annexed to his said petition, and the said county court being satisfied by competent testimony, that the said Benjamin Tabbs has resided the two preceding years prior to the passage of the said act, within the state of Maryland. It is thereupon adjudged and ordered by the said court that the said Benjamin Tabbs give notice to his creditors of his intention to apply to the next county court to be held at Leonard Town in said county on the first Monday of August next, for a discharge from his debts, and to warn his said said creditors to appear before the said judges on the day and at the place aforesaid to shew cause if any they have why the said Benjamin Tabbs should not be discharged agreeably to his said petition, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in the National Intelligencer, weekly for three months successively.
