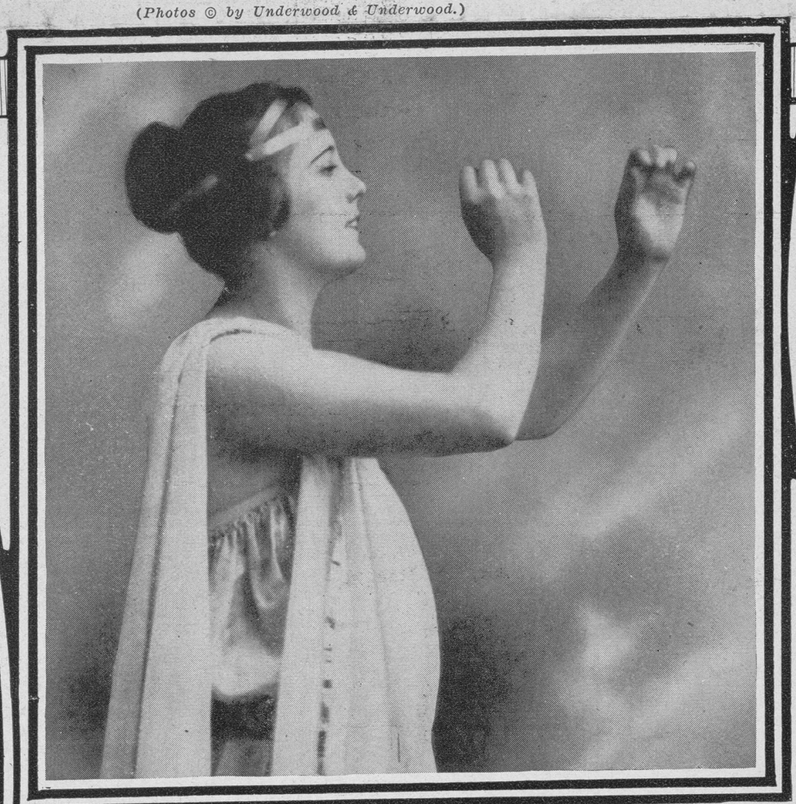
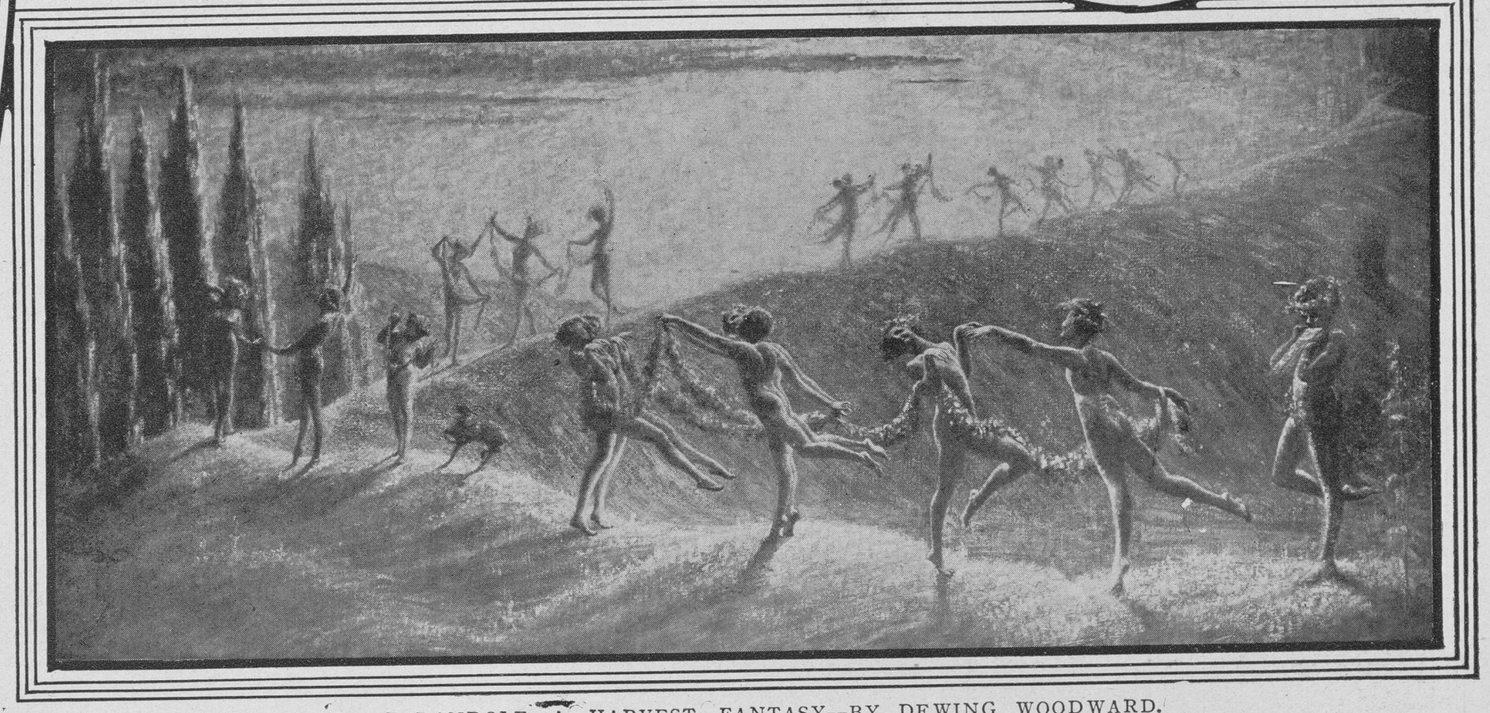
CHILDREN FROM MANY SECTIONS OF THE UNITED STATES CELEBRATING ST. VALENTINE'S DAY IN THE COCOANUT GROVE AT PALM BEACH.
(Photos © by Underwood & Underwood.)

STATUE OF POCAHONTAS--BY WILLIAM ORDWAY PARTRIDGE,
To be Erected on Jamestown Island, Virginia, and to be Exhibited for the First Time on Next Wednesday at the Hotel Plaza at an Entertainment to be Given by the Pocahontas National Memorial Association and Opened by Mrs. Woodrow Wilson.



MISS JOSEPHINE A. HUDDLESTON,
The Chicago Girl Chosen from a Thousand Candidates as the Model for the Monument Symbolical of American Womanhood, to be Erected on the New Dixie Highway near the "Mason and Dixon Line."
(Photo © Int. Film Ser.)

HAL BEAMIS, Son of H. E. Beamis, New York, and Little VIRGINIA WILLYS, Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John N. Willys, Toledo, Ohio, at the Palm Beach Valentine's Party.



LA FARANDOLE--A HARVEST FANTASY--BY DEWING WOODWARD.
From an Exhibition of this Artist's Paintings at the Rooms of the Blue Dome Fellowship.
(Photo by Peter A. Juley.)