Graphic Section
Part Five

New York Tribune

Graphic Section
September 21, 1919

Unfolded flat copy of the Color-graphic Section, admirably suited for framing, will be mailed post-paid on receipt of 25 cents; three copies for 50 cents.

An Artist's Ideal

By Sir Joshua Reynolds

Between the sittings of his regular patrons, the great master delighted in painting beautiful subjects whenever they caught his artistic eye. These ideals of the artist are among the masterpieces so much prized and discovered by accident in "out of the way" places. The above wonderful example was "found" by a connoisseur and lover of art in a little art shop in Paris.