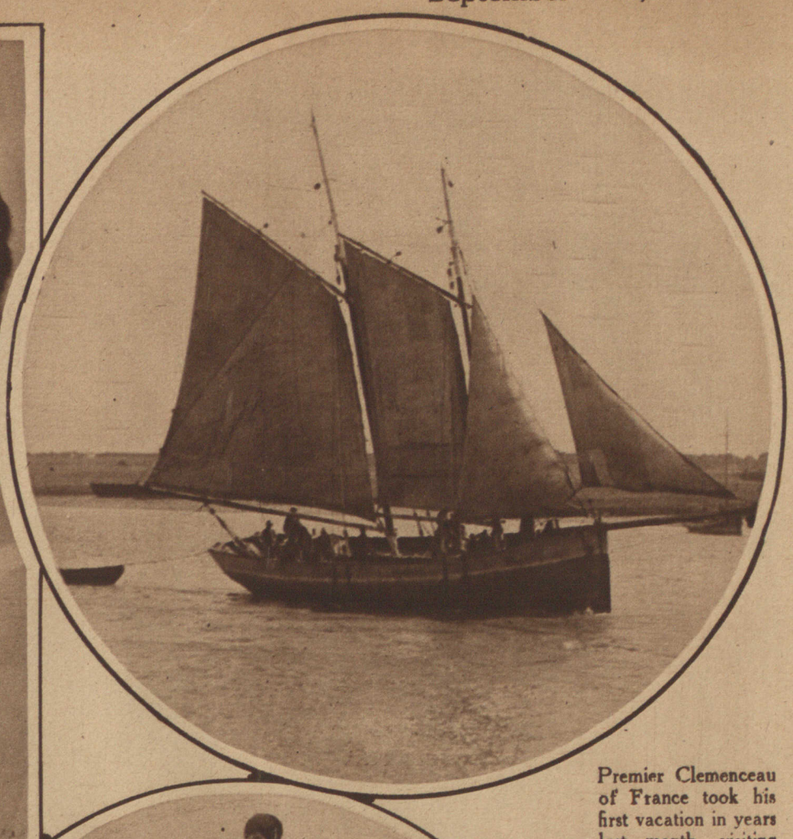
Herr and Frau Hindenburg, armed with the family's two umbrellas, take their pet dachshund out for a constitutional in the streets of Hanover. This is the first photograph of Hindenburg in civilian clothes to reach this country since before the war.
International

Miss Margaret T. Smith, teacher of physical training in the Horace Mann School and daughter of Dr. J. G. Smith, President of the Harlem Board of Commerce, who was recently chosen as Republican candidatee for Assembly in the primaries in the 19th District.
Underwood



Premier Clemenceau of France took his first vacation in years last month, visiting La Vendee, his birthplace. Above is the homely though seaworthy little schooner aboard which the aged statesman spent part of his week's vacation—from a photo taken of the schooner while the "Tiger" was on board.
International

Left — The newest stunt on the Pacific Coast is aquaplaning behind a speeding seaplane. This young lady, Miss Georgia de Long, of San Diego, thrills a seashore crowd by taxiing around the bay on a surf board trailing behind a seaplane, hitting it up at sixty miles an hour.
International

Just the minute Boston's police force went on strike hundreds of crap games started up all over the city. "Read 'em and weep" certainly came true in this case when state guardsmen rounded up the bone-rolling gamblers by the wholesale.
Central News

The gayly decorated streets of San Francisco were the end of the trail for seventy-two army trucks, which recently successfully completed their 3,000-mile trip from Washington in just sixty-two days. The heavy trucks broke through 100 bridges, 47 of them in Wyoming alone, during the course of their record transcontinental journey.
Underwood

Two of the latest freak Parisian fashions to make their appearance at Deauville, France. A one-piece bloomer costume and a befringed, sleeveless, cutaway (very much), open air jersey. Heaven forbid that they ever become popular on this side of the pond.
Underwood

From all reports Germany is hard at work building up a new army. Here are three new photographs which seem to prove this. Left—Setting up exercises at a training camp. Right—A machine gun company going over the top in an obstacle race. Above—German soldier with full equipment making a high dive into a pool of water at a military exposition.
Wide World