Ritard.

Ritard.

Detailed description: This system continues the piano accompaniment from the first system. It features the same two-staff piano part. The right-hand staff has a treble clef and the left-hand staff has a bass clef. The music concludes with a Ritard. (ritardando) marking in both staves. The system ends with a double bar line.

Ent. according to Act of Congress A.D. 1852 by Firth Pond & Co., in the Clerks Office of the Dist. Court for the Southth Dist. of N. Y.

An Elmtree of old stood lonely and cold where wintry winds blew high: And looking below he saw in the snow: The Ivy wand'ring nigh. And he said come twine with those tendrils of thine, My scathed and frozen form. For heart and hand to - gether we'll stand, And mock at the baffled storm, Ha ha! together we are bold and strong To - gether we are right when the world goes wrong, Ha ha! to - gether we will live and die. Ha ha! still to - gether when the ocean's dry.
