APPEAL OF THE REFORMED INEBRIATE.

1

Oh call us not back to the festival board,
 To the gay lighted hall, where the wine cup is poured,
 We come not, we heed not, from fountain and rill
 We fill up the goblet, and drink to you still.

CHORUS.

We drink to the hour when like us you shall be,
 With the heart of the brave in the home of the free;
 We drink to the hour when our banner shall wave
 O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave!
 CHORUS— We drink to the hour, &c.

2

Can that festival board yield a nectar as sweet
 As the pure sparkling water that flows at our feet;
 That comes from the fountain, all glittering and pure,
 The dying to heal, and the wounded to cure.
 CHORUS— We drink to the hour, &c.

3

We turn from the revel, the banquet, the song,
 To the home and the fireside deserted so long;
 And there every friend so long banished shall be,
 To greet us returning, the ransomed, the free.
 CHORUS— We drink to the hour, &c.

4

Oh call us not back to the festival board,
 To the gay lighted hall, where the wine cup is poured,
 For sorrow and gloom to its portals belong,
 And the death-knell of hope is the bacchanal's song.
 CHORUS— We drink to the hour, &c.
