JUL -1 1918

TOMMY, FRENCHY and SAMMY THAT'S ME!

©CLE428452

Words by
CHAS. THOMPSON

Music by
C.H. JENSEN

Published by
Chas. Thompson
3203 Park Ave., Chicago, Ill.

41646
J

Tommy and Frenchy and Sammy that's Me

Words by
CHAS. THOMPSON

Music by
C. H. JENSEN

f

Marcato

Sol-diers of three might-y na-tions we, With hands clasped a-cross the sea;
Let the Ger-man have his place in the sun, He is on-ly a fight-ing hun;

mf

We have been where the Y-ser flows, We have seen where the lil-y
It is not him that we most hate, But his world-steal will have to grows, For three long fight-ing years and more We have heard the cannon's cease-less roar;

wait, Old Kai-ser Bill must be a nut, We will cure his haughty Kul-tur strut;

From Ver-dun out to the o-pen sea We have al-ways been pals, we
He must reckon for his en-mi-ty With this great fight-ing trin-i-

All Rights Reserved

Copyright, MCMXVIII, by Chas. Thompson, 3203 Park Ave. Chicago, Ill.

Chorus Marcia

three..... ty.....

Tommy and Frenchy and Sammy, that's me! We fought side by side 'way o - ver the sea; When we had the mak-in's We al- ways stood to - geth-er for a light or a fight, Be it rough or balm-y weather; There were hum- an ties that bound us, And tho' our comrades fell a - round us, Kind Dame Fortune seemed to guide us for she ev- er was be-side us, Oh, we al - ways have been pals, we three, Yes, Tommy and Frenchy and Sam-my that's me! me!

mp - f

Rayner Dalheim & Co.
Music Printers & Engravers
Chicago, Ill.

434707