From James F. Dudley, [illegible]

"I trust you will not delay the work [illegible] of exceeding value, and in case of your [illegible] and unable to attend to this work, I am really at a loss [illegible] could be completed."

Hon. Elias Dudley Freeman says of my [illegible] accomplished a work of magnificent [illegible]

[illegible]

Mr. Dean Dudley.

Dear Sir:—Your favor of [illegible] that the second number of the Dudley History [illegible] in April. In reply to your inquiry, I would [illegible] my likeness engraved and hardly think it would be [illegible] Dudley History, since my pedigree [illegible] running through Bradstreet, Cotton, [illegible] name was Mary Upham and her [illegible] Upham and his descendants," [illegible] wells of America," Boston, [illegible] bers, it would not be [illegible] Upham, my grandfather, and his [illegible] but all depends upon the plan of [illegible] the male line, the Upham family [illegible] Dudley descendant, being a daughter of Paul Dudley [illegible] mother was a daughter of Paul and Martha [illegible] your "Dudley genealogies." I [illegible] second number, which I hope to receive [illegible]

Yours very truly,

[illegible]

Dear Sir:—I have examined your work of the Dudley [illegible] my return from Boston, and I enclose you, herewith, my [illegible] dollars, in payment for the same. I would not take [illegible] of it if I could not procure another.

J. S. Bradstreet, [illegible]

28 Harvard St., Boston, Mass., March [illegible]

Dean Dudley, Esq., Wakefield, Mass.—Inclosed please [illegible] dollars for number five of the History of the Dudley Family.

I think you made a mistake in not charging two dollars [illegible] place for each number. I should think one dollar would not [illegible] your labor.

Yours truly,

[illegible]

When the first part of this work was issued [illegible] of it as the beginning of a most interesting family history. [illegible] families in the whole circle of genealogical story there is none of more renown than the Dudleys, and this chronicler of the [illegible] useful lives of those who have made the name [illegible] one who bears it under peculiar obligation. The work, both text and engravings, is beautifully printed. Mr. Dudley has [illegible] rial for the family history with a diligent hand, and arranged it with the skill of an historian. Those who would see what can be done in the way of a family history by a man of genius for such composition should read these interesting pages of Mr. Dean Dudley.—Boston Transcript.

I cannot say too much in praise of your book—its candid [illegible] embellishments, its research, its pure diction, its [illegible] is a superb piece of historical and literary workmanship.—[illegible] Dudley Tector, Cincinnati, O.

I have received your Dudley Family History, No. [illegible] interesting. Would like two more. Please forward [illegible] Cox, M. D., Bangor, Me.
