No. XIV. From George Guest Esqre

Roselawn, Cloughjordan
December 3rd 1856.

My Dear Sir,

Your favor duly to hand, a part of which did not read happily, that is did not please me.

Any one possessing discrimination could not but see from time to time that you have done much as human mortal could every way in the matter, and seeing the unwearying trouble which you have had in so satisfactorily arranging &c. x x x x. was the sole cause of my sending additional Post Office Order, and not as you have supposed to bring you under any compliment - I felt it was but common