AFTER SUNDOWN.

SONG & CHORUS.

Moderato.

Alice Hawthorne.

PLANO.

The piano introduction consists of two staves. The right hand starts with a treble clef, a key signature of one flat (B-flat), and a common time signature. It begins with a piano (p) dynamic and features a series of eighth notes and quarter notes, some with slurs. The left hand starts with a bass clef and a key signature of one flat, playing a steady accompaniment of quarter notes. Pedal markings include Ped and cres. (crescendo).

The piano accompaniment for the first part of the song consists of two staves. The right hand continues the melodic line from the introduction. The left hand provides a harmonic accompaniment with chords and moving lines. Dynamics include f (forte), dim (diminuendo), and p (piano). A Ped marking is present.

sundown with its twilight Dying in the distant west. Af_ter

The second part of the song features a vocal line on a single staff and piano accompaniment on two staves. The vocal line has lyrics: "sundown with its twilight Dying in the distant west. Af_ter". The piano accompaniment continues with chords and a steady bass line. Pedal markings include Ped and ***.

After Sundown there are moments
 Sweet as day can ever afford,
 Round the hearth with friends united,
 Kindly met in sweet accord;
 After Sundown oh how pleasant,
 When the nights are cool and long,
 With the near ones and the dear ones
 Met in social chat and song.
