At a meeting of a number of democratic republicans at the city of Annapolis, on Friday the 20th day of April, 1804 GASSAWAY WATKINS having been chosen chairman, and NICHOLAS BREWER, secretary, the following resolutions were entered into and ordered to be published in the National Intelligencer, Maryland Gazette, and American.

WHEREAS this meeting have seen published certain resolutions entered into by a meeting of republican citizens of Prince George's county, at Upper Marlborough, on the 10 instant; and whereas this meeting highly approve of the principles contained in said resolutions, and believe that the adoption of similar measures in Anne-Arundel county would tend to secure the election of democratic republican characters as electors of President, and vice-President, members of congress and delegates to the general assembly.

Resolved, That it be recommended to the democratic republicans of Anne-Arundel county to meet at the places of holding elections for their respective districts, on the 26th of May next, and appoint five delegates to meet in general committee, at the city of Annapolis, on the 16th of June, to fix on proper characters to be supported as delegates to the next general assembly.

Resolved, That the general committee to be thus selected, when assembled as aforesaid, determine on four characters whom they may consider best calculated to unite the democratic republican interest of this county, as candidates at the next election of delegates, and this meeting pledge themselves to support the characters that may be designated by the committee aforesaid.

Resolved, That it be recommended to the general committee aforesaid, when thus assembled, to appoint a committee of their own body to consult with any similar committee that may be appointed by Prince George's county, on the proper character to be run as representative in the next congress of the United States, and this meeting in like manner pledge themselves to support any character that may be fixed upon by such general committee of the two counties.

Resolved, That it be recommended to the aforesaid general committee of Anne-Arundel county, to appoint a select committee of their own body to consult with any similar committee of Baltimore city, and that part of Montgomery county composing the electoral district, on the proper characters to be brought forward as electors of President, and Vice-President, and this meeting in like manner pledge themselves to support the characters that may be thus designated by the committees of this electoral district of President and Vice-President.
