ADDIE DE LANE.

Words by GEORGE COOPER.

Music by CHAS. E. PRATT.

The musical score consists of two staves of music. The top staff is for the piano, showing a continuous pattern of chords and bass notes. The bottom staff is for the voice, with lyrics written below the notes. The lyrics are as follows:

1. Oh! the
2. Now those days of long a-go, Addie De Lane. When you said you lov'd meso, Addie De Lane. When you ear-ly days are gone, Addie De Lane. But I linger not a lone, Addie De Lane. For you cheeks were like the rose, And we met at days ré-pose, Where the gentle ri-ver flows, Addie De still are by my side, And we watch the years that glide, In Life's gentle ev-en-tide, Addie De

Lane; O, your heart was fond and true, And your lips were sweet as dew As it Lane; Tho' your golden tresses fade And the clouds of sor-row shade, Lov-ely lies up-on the lonely flow'rs of morn; And your golden tresses shone, Like the eyes that beamed so fondly long a - go, Yet you still are dear to me, In your sunny rays, my own, As they gleam upon the radiant hills of dawn, loving face I see, All the joys my heart could wish for here be - low!
