 heav'nly host be - gan: "Glo - ry to God the high - est, On earth good - will to man!"

3. "Fear not, we bring good tidings,
 For, on this happy morn,
 The promised one, the Saviour,
 In Beth'lem - town was born!"
 Up rose the simple shepherds,
 All with a joyful mind;
 "Oh, let us onward," said they,
 "This holy Child to find."
4. Not in a kingly palace
 The Son of God they found,
 But in a lowly manger
 Where oxen fed around.
 Then worshiped Him the wise men,
 As prophets had foretold:
 And laid their gifts before Him,
 Frankincense, myrrh and gold.

5. Long looked the simple shepherds,
 With holy wonder stirred,
 Then praised God for all things
 Which they have seen and heard;
 And homeward went rejoicing,
 Upon that Christmas morn,
 Declaring unto others
 That Jesus Christ was born.
6. That He was born,—the Saviour,
 The promised One of old;
 That they have seen the Saviour
 To every one they told.
 And like unto the shepherds,
 We wander far and near,
 And bid ye wake, good Christians,
 The joyful news to hear.
