Title:	1st four right and left; or, Quadrille schottische
Name(s):	Rowe, Geo. H.
Resource Type:	notated music
Note(s):	From: Music Copyright Deposits, 1870-1885 (Microfilm M 3500)
Subject(s):	Songs with piano
URL	http://lcweb2.loc.gov/diglib/ihas/loc.music.sm1876.01121

PDF dynamically generated by the Library of Congress.

APR 30 1900
Music Dept.

GORMAN and ROMER'S

("THE GERMAN EMIGRANTS,")

POPULAR

Character Songs

As performed by them with immense success at the THEATRE COMIQUE, New York City, and at all the leading Theatres throughout the UNITED STATES.

COMPOSED EXPRESSLY FOR THE ABOVE ARTISTS, BY

G. H. ROWE.

1. First Four Right and Left, or Quadrille Schottische.
2. When the Moonbeams Gently Fall.

Each 75

BOSTON:
GEORGE H. ROWE,
478 WASHINGTON STREET.

New York: J. L. PETERS. Philadelphia: J. E. DITSON & CO. Chicago: ROOT & SONS MUSIC CO.

Copyrighted in 1876 by Geo. H. Rowe.

RICHARDSON, PRINTER, BOSTON.

1st. FOUR RIGHT AND LEFT.

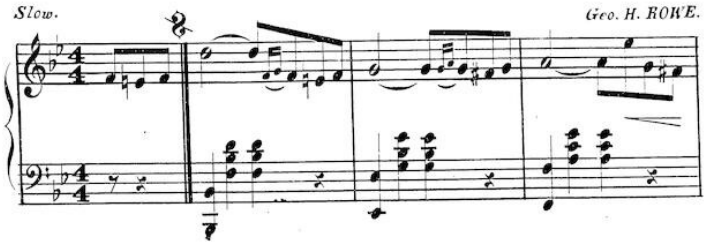
or

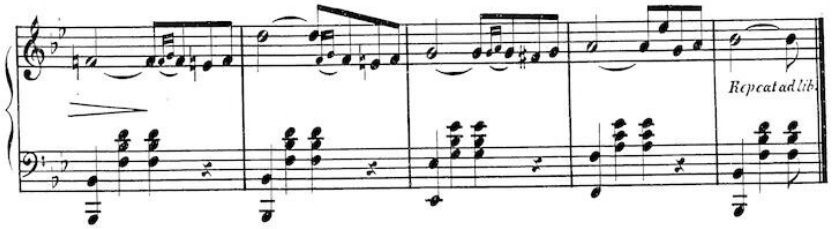
QUADRILLE SCHOTTISCHE.

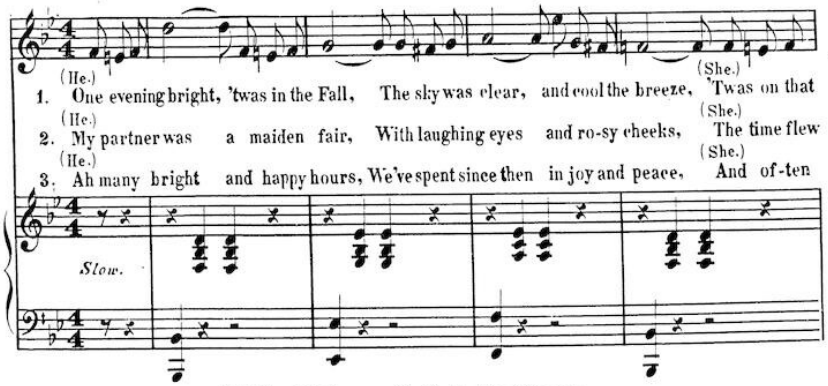
Words and Music by

Geo. H. ROWE.

Slow.







N.B. Full Orchestra parts (MSS.) to this Song sent by Mail. Price 75 cents.

night in Ver-non hall, We met and danced Quadrille schottische;
by and midnights hour, Still found us at Quadrille schottische;
back - ward memory turns, To when we danced Quadrille schottische;

f

(Ile.) 1st four right and left, Balance partners all the prompter quickly shouted out, (Both.) (1st & 2d time.)
(Ile.) Ladies lead the right, All schottische around, the prompter quickly shouted out, And soon a- (last time.)
(Ile.) Right and left to place, Schottische round the hall methinks I hear the prompter shout, And once af rit. a

-eross the polished floor, we glided back and forth with ease, and each one
-gain it seems as though, we're gliding back and forth with ease, and going tempo.

hap - - py gay and free, In dancing the Quadrille schottische.
through our youthful days, In dancing the Quadrille schottische.
DANCE.
Lively. slower.
D.S.