WORDS BY MOE POMERANCE ©CLE423757 MUSIC BY LES MORRIS

Leader.

THEY'LL MAKE IT LOOK LIKE DIXIE WHEN THEY CROSS THE RIVER RHINE.

MAY 13 1918

Modto.

Vamp ff

Voce

pp

SAM-MY BOYS are leaving every day so they say go-ing there to en ter in the fray for a way. They will sure ly win for when they over be - gin They'll ral ly in to Ber lin and they'll make that Hun be - gin They'll

Chos

p ff

make it look like Dix ie when they cross the Riv er Rhine They'll change the name to Car o line like the Mas on lix on line The sug ar cane is rare and cot ton dont grow there You'll hear the ban jos play ing See the Sam mies Snaying o ver there in Lin den square The Sun shene that they missed a way down south in Tem nes see will spread like some bright dawn ing o ver there in ger ma ny Now wont that be just fine to hang the Kaiser to that line They'll make it look like Dix ie when they Cross the Riv er Rhine

JEROME H. REMICK & CO. New York & Detroit.

M1646
.M

431651

©CLE423757
MAY 13 1918

THEY'LL MAKE IT LOOK LIKE DIXIE WHEN THEY CROSS THE RIVER RHINE.

I

Sammy boys are leaving every day, so they say.
Going there to mingle in the fray, far away.
They will surely win, for when they once begin.
They'll rally into Berlin, and make that Hun give in.

15513 MAY 13'18

CHORUS

They'll make it look like Dixie when they cross the river Rhine.
They'll change the name to Caroline like the Mason Dixon line.
Though sugar cane is rare and cotton don't grow there.
They'll be banjos playing, all the Sammies swaying over in Linden Square.
The sunshine that they missed ~~in~~ away down south in Tennessee.
Will spread like some bright dawning over there in Germany.
And won't it be just fine, to hang the Kaiser to a line.
They'll make it look like Dixie when they cross the river Rhine.

MAY 13 1918