cel - e - brate the Ju - bi - lee Of this Cen - ten - nial year.
 us no show to cel - e - brate This grand Cen - ten - nial year.

CHORUS.

Fours right forward march How the folks will cheer When the tattered col - ors of the Right forward fours right Close up in the rear See our gal - lant Cap - tain How

Reg - iment draw near. The empty sleeves and crutches, That in our ranks appear, Speak fierce he does ap - pear, He's the pet of all the ladies Who know they need not fear, When more than all the el - o - quence Of this Cen - ten - nial year.

 he's on guard the Coun - trys safe On this Cen - ten - nial year.

The President and Cabinet
 And all the great I'ams
 With generals of the Army
 Boys in blue of Uncle Sams,
 And there we'll meet some of the lads
 That fought the other way
 And we'll give a hearty welcome
 To the gallant "boys in gray!"

Chorus.

Fours in circle, left wheel
 There now what do you say
 "Old red legs" are to the front
 Home guards clear the way
 North, South the East and West
 Clasp hands like brothers dear
 Our Country it is one whole piece
 On this Centennial year.

4.

You talk about the Veterans
 But don't forget them that's gone
 Who fought so bravely in the days
 Of General Washington.
 The heroes of seventeen seventy six
 To our memories that are dear
 We must not forget, to celebrate
 On this Centennial year.

Chorus.

Right face, forward march
 The sound of drums we hear
 The Veterans of the Old Fourteenth
 The honor guard 'drawing near
 Their Countries flag is tatter'd
 But to them it is as dear
 And here they come to celebrate
 This first Centennial year.
