Liberty dear is what I'm looking for,
As he does, who for it refuses life!

Hail! Old Glory!

I.

Oh! Hail! blessed Old Glory
With the red, white and blue!
Thou showest to the world
The true path of vertue,
The red is our faith,
The white is our soul,
The blue, the free sky
Which is sought by us all.
In thee are our thoughts,
In thee we see our home,
The freedom secured
Through a long martyrdom
(Chorus)

II

Go forward! Go forward!
Do never return
Unless to mankind
Thou willst show 't is free born!
Afloat on the seas!
Afloat on the shores!
Afloat in the skys
Amidst storms, winds and roars!
Impress on the minds
Of the peoples at war,
That there are but three things
They have to fight for:
The first is fraternity,
Equality the second;
The third is real liberty,
Of which we are so fond
(Chorus)

(Chorus) So here's to dear old Washington,
To Hale and Franklin too;
To free the world from tyrants
Is mainly up to you!
For them there was no Kaiser,
For us, there'll be none too:
Forever, still more glorious
Will wave our banner true!
