©CLE433471
OCT 31 1918

The Flag They Love So Well.

HENRY J. ZELLEY, D.D. W. PHILIP.

Moderato. f dim. f

1. We hon-or thus the no - ble boys, En-list - ed for the right, Who answered to their
2. We place within God's Temple here, A Serv-ice Flag to - day, To keep the mem'ry
3. And when the fi-nal battle's fought, The fi - nal vic t'ry's won, With Britain, France and

mf

Country's call, And for her brave-ly fight. They've rallied round that standard fair, 'Neath ev - er green, Of those who've march'd away. For freedom they will bat - tle on, 'Mid I - tal - y, The ju - bi - lee be-gun, They'll wave the Red and White and Blue, And f dim.

which their fathers fell, The glorious ban-ner of the free, The flag they love so well.
shot and bursting shell, They'll follow where "Old Glory" leads, The flag they love so well.
of its glo - ries tell, They'll bear it home in triumph soon, The flag they love so well.

CHORUS. (Arranged.)

ff

They are their Country's trusty shield, And bear, 'mid shot and shell, f rit.

On many a crim - son bat - tle - field, The flag they love so well.

M1646
.P

Copyright 1918, by Zelley and Wuest, Woodbury, N. J.

442805