City Hall, April 27.

Tammany Society, or Columbian order.

Brothers,

The die is cast! The disturbers of the world's peace have spilt the innocent blood of your countryman John Pearce. The standard of the Nation will be hoisted half mast at sun rise on the Great Wigwam. The society are requested to attend this morning precisely at nine o'clock, with buck's tails in their hats, and crape edged with red, on their left arms, in order to join the Corporation and the rest of their fellow citizens, in paying a tribute of respect and honor to the manes of their murdered countryman.

Brothers,

On this solemn occasion you will appear without your tomahawks, your bows and your arrows. Nevertheless you will have the tomahawks well sharpened, the arrows pointed, and the bows well strung. The enemy are on our borders! The black belt of Wampum stained with American blood, is now before your eyes in the Great Council Chamber of the Nation.

Brothers—be vigilant—be prepared.

By order of the Grand Sachem,

JAMES D. BISSETT, Sec'y.

April 26.

At a meeting of Federal Republicans at the Tontine Coffee House, called on Saturday to take into consideration the defenceless state of our harbor, Cornelius Ray, Esq. in the Chair.

On motion Resolved, That Rufus King, Ebenezer Stevens, Oliver Wolcott, William W. Woolsey and William Henderson, be a committee to prepare and report to this meeting, resolutions expressive of the objects of this meeting as to the subjects on which they were convened; which committee reported the following:

Resolved, That the citizens of the U S. are of right, and according to the constitution and laws of the land, entitled to the enjoyment of life, liberty, and property; and that it is the primary and most important duty of government to defend, preserve, and protect the same.

Resolved, That it is upon the strength and resources of the U. S. that we can alone, under Providence, rely for national safety and the maintenance of national rights.

Resolved, That the repeated outrages committed by foreign ships of war at the mouths of our harbors, merit the resentment and indignation of every friend to his country.

Resolved, That an administration which consents to pay money to avoid foreign insolence, or to prevent the violation of national rights, while it sells and dismantles its naval force, instead of increasing and preserving it for the defence of our ports and commerce, prostrates the national honor, endangers the public safety, and invites both injustice and insult.

Resolved, That the suffering of foreign armed ships to station themselves off our harbor, and there to stop, search and capture our vessels, to impress, wound, and murder our citizens, is a gross and criminal neglect of the highest duties of government, and that an Administration which patiently permits the same, is not entitled to the confidence of a brave and free people.

Resolved, That the body of merchants who foresaw the impending danger, and petitioned Congress and the state legislature to afford protection to this city and its lawful commerce, have merited the approbation of their fellow citizens.

Resolved, That the memorials of the merchants and citizens to Congress, have been neglected, and that we have not perceived on the part of the members of the Senate and Assembly from this city such exertions and zeal as were expected of them to engage the interposition and influence of the state legislature with Congress for the protection of our defenceless city.

Resolved, That so long as the British ships of war which have assumed a station at the entrance of this port are suffered to remain there, it is earnestly recommended that no supplies, provisions, or succours of any kind, should be afforded them from our markets, nor any intercourse held with them in any shape whatever, and that our pilot boats should abstain from visiting them.

Resolved, That the murder of John Pearce, one of our fellow citizens, by a shot from a British ship of war, at the entrance of our harbour, and within half a mile of the shore, while he was engaged in peaceably navigating a coasting vessel, laden with provisions for our market, was an act that excites our detestation and abhorrence, and calls upon our government for the adoption of prompt and vigorous measures to prevent a repetition of such wanton and inhuman conduct, and so flagrant a violation of our national sovereignty.

Resolved, That this meeting approve the conduct of those persons who intercepted the supplies which were sent from this city to those vessels who now blockade our harbor, and who have murdered our fellow citizen John Pearce.

Resolved, That we will attend the funeral of the deceased, and that it be recommended to the ships in the harbor to display the customary signs of mourning.

Resolved, That John B. Coles, Ebenezer Stevens, Samuel Mansfield, Robert Bogardus, and Samuel Gedney, be a committee to confer with the friends of the deceased, and make the necessary arrangements in behalf of this meeting, relative to his funeral.

Resolved, That the proceedings of this meeting be published.

CORNELIUS RAY, Chairman.

SAMUEL BOYD, Sec.

 The subscribers, being the committee appointed at the meeting of the Federal Republicans, on Saturday evening last, to make the necessary arrangements in behalf of that meeting, for the funeral of our fellow citizen, John Pearce, murdered by a British ship of war at the mouth of our harbor, give notice, that they have waited on a committee of the corporation, in whose hands they found the corpse of the deceased, and were informed that the corporation had directed the same to be interred at the expence of the city, this day at 12 o'clock. The services of the committee for this purpose, have therefore become unnecessary; but they earnestly recommend to all classes of their fellow citizens to unite in performing the last offices of humanity towards the deceased, not only for the purpose of manifesting the public sorrow, for the violent and untimely death of a fellow-citizen, but as a solemn and impressive testimony against that system of administration, which, regardless of our humble petitions, withholds all adequate protection from our city and sea faring brethren, and thereby leaves us and them defenceless and exposed to the violence and depredations of the free-booters of the ocean.

EBENEZER STEVENS,
SAMUEL MANSFIELD,
SAMUEL GEDNEY,
ROBERT BOGARDUS.

April 28th, 1806.

A pilot boat, full of men well armed, sailed on Saturday afternoon in quest of the vessels which have been captured at the entrance of Sandy Hook by the British frigates who have commenced an actual blockade without any formal declaration of war. This expedition is undertaken at the expence of several commercial gentlemen, who have also volunteered their services on this occasion.

A large pettiauger, which had sailed early on Saturday morning with provisions for the blockading squadron, was intercepted by the above pilot boat, and compelled to return. The populace assembled at the wharf, took out the provisions, loaded several carts therewith, and paraded through some of the principal streets to the alms house, where the meat was deposited for the use of the poor.
