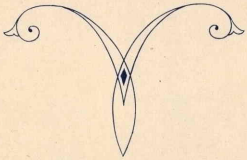
JUL 11 1917

©LE406715

'NEATH STARS AND STRIPES

PATRIOTIC MARCH SONG



WORDS AND MUSIC

BY

CHARLES M. PYKE

PRICE 60 CENTS

R. W. HEFFELFINGER

LOS ANGELES

M1646
.P

"NEATH STARS AND STRIPES"

Words and Music by
C. M. PYKE

Tempo di Marcia, Con Spirito

Voce

Of our blest Once more to

f ff mf

land that we love dear - ly, We now your prais - es loud - ly arms our coun - try calls us And quick-ly do brave hearts re - sing And from our hearts we'll show most clear - ly What spond; For Free-dom's cause we'll stand to - geth - er, A

Copyright 1917 by C.M. Pyke makes our voic - es for you ring; 'Tis not for sol - diers words a sol - diers bond. See our dear deeds of val - or on - ly That we with pride and hon - or flag now proud - ly wav - ing O'er land and sea and for - tress tell, But of your power, your peace and plen - ty And wall, The sym-bol of E - ter - nal Lib - er - ty, For rall. ad lib.

deeds of char - i - ty as well. We shout "Hip, E - qual Rights to One and All. We shout "Hip, rall. ad lib.

CHORUS

a tempo.

Hip, Hur-rah!" No mat-ter where we are, For the Old

a tempo.

Flag that we a-dore, "'Neath Stars and Stripes" praise we,

God, Land and Lib-er-ty, The cry re-sounds from shore to shore; Now that we're called to arms Through war's most dread a-larms,

Quick have our ban - ners been un - furled, Then with a might - y shout Has our re - solve gone out That has been

1. To Trio

heard through - out the world. Our p

To Trio

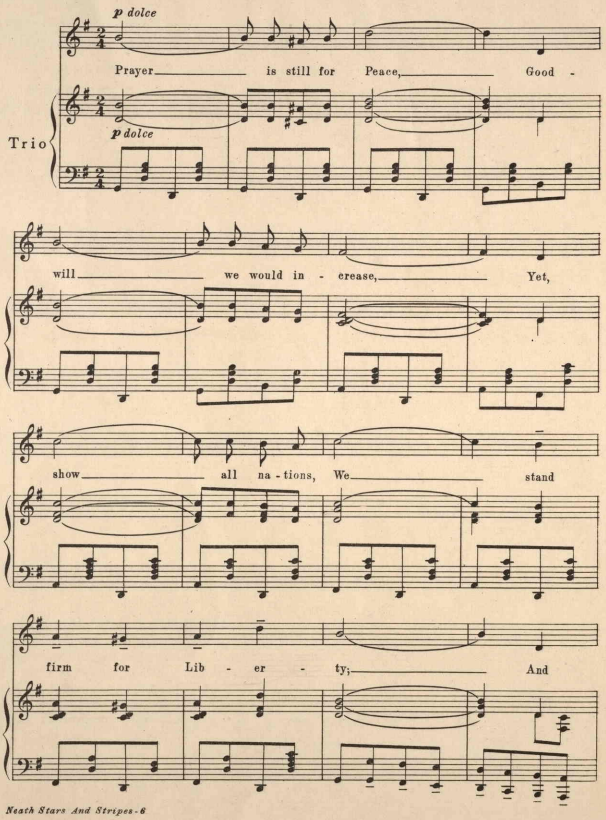
Last Fine

ff

out the world.

ff

Fine



p dolce
Prayer is still for Peace, Good - Trio
p dolce
will we would in - crease, Yet, show all na - tions, We stand firm for Lib - er - ty; And so dear na - tive land, By you we'll al - ways stand, Your rights, your name de - fend, Yes, now and

D. S. Chorus al fine

ff rall. ad lib.

ev - er to the end, We shout, "Hip,

D. S. Chorus al fine

ff rall. ad lib.

410950