©CAE 416070 R DEC 20 1917

Hail! Loved America!

A National Hymn Words and Music

Moderato-Maestoso. Last stanza very softly for the U.S.A. by Waldo Reed

Hail! Loved A-mer-i-ca! Hon-ored and free! Brave he-roes gave their lives
Un-der thy Stars and Stripes Flung to the breeze - We guard thy vast do-main Strong for In-teg-ri-ty! Firm for the Right! No place is on thy soil God of the U-ni-verse! Who hear-est prayer - Lead us a-way from Wrong!

f

For thy lib-er-ty. No ty-rant whose red hands Drip with hu-man
And far-dis-tant seas. Ho-ping for peace on earth! Striv-ing to be
For the Law of Night. Long may thy ea-gles scream Call-ing the op-Keep us in Thy care! Yield us Thy gui-ding light Should we in dep

Refrain for each stanza gore Can with his sav-age host Rule thy free shore!

Just! Un-con-quered when in war In God we trust,
-pressed. So Loved A-mer-i-ca Land that is blessed!
Spair Swerve from the path of Right Grant Thou our prayer!

A-mer-i-ca! Aff

mer-i-ca! Our hearts are bound to thee!

P. Retard with Expression

P Rit-dim-

M1646
.R

"Hail! Loved America!"

- A National Hymn -

For the United States of America.

A.D. 1917

Words and Music

by

Waldo Reed.

Westport Point - Mass.

Mss. copyrighted - not for publication. Dec. 1917.

Carl Fischer, New York.
No. 10 — 12 lines.

421.11