AMERICA.

Hail, hail to thee thou consecrated land, the seat of arts,
Where Muses delight to dwell, and wreathe the crowns,
And with daring flight rise in thy praises,
While the high genius of thy people,
Smiles friendly to thy commerce,
Arise, ye celebrating choirs, arise still higher,
With wings of thanksgivings
To the starry heavens;
That the whole earth may resound thy jubilee.

Preserve, great God
The mild government of this happy land,
And on its head let ever flow down,
The full streams of thy blessing;
Then will the hearts of every age and and every station,
Praise thee, that thou has't given it
For it is the happiness of America's people.

Ran-away from the subscriber living in Pomonkeynick, Charles county Maryland and about two miles below Mount Vernon—a negro man named JACK, about 50 years of age, his voice is loud speaks fluently; he is a baptist by profession and loves argument; he is very black except his shins that are purple about 5 inches inches in length and 1 in breadth occasioned by sitting too near the fire. Said Jack came from Guinea when 12 years of age, there is a burn on the back of one of his hands.

Whoever brings him home or secures him so that I can have him, shall receive 20 dollars if 20 miles from home, if 30 miles 30 do. if 50 miles 40 dollars and reasonable expences paid.

THE SUPERB BARB,

THE BLACK SULTAN,

PRESENTED by the Dey of Tunis, to the government of the United States, and lately brought to this country by the Tunisian ambassador, will stand the ensuing season at PETWORTH, the farm of JOHN TAYLOE, esq. near Rock Creek church, and within two miles of the city of Washington, where Mares from a distance will be pastured at 40 cents per week, and fed if desired at the market price. This Royal present being one of the most choice animals of the Regency of Tunis and full fifteen hands high, a desire has prevailed that so valuable a race should be extended as much as possible; it has therefore been directed that he be placed at a low price; he will consequently stand at TWENTY DOLLARS the season, which will begin immediately, and end on the first of August; at or before which time the price of the season will be dischargeable by SIXTEEN DOLLARS with a DOLLAR to the Groom when the Mare is sent.

CHESTER BAILEY, Manager for John Tayloe, esq. at Petworth.

CHASE'S TRIAL.

This day is Published

By SAMUEL H. SMITH.

TRIAL

OF

SAMUEL CHASE,

AN ASSOCIATE JUSTICE of the Supreme Court of the United States,

IMPEACHED

By the House of Representatives, for HIGH CRIMES AND MISDEMEANORS, before the Senate of the United States.

Taken in short hand,
By SAMUEL H. SMITH & THOMAS LLOYD.

In Two large Octavo Volumes—in Boards, price—to subscribers four dollars and a half—and to non-subscribers five dollars.

A much greater delay has been incurred in the publication of this trial than the Editor contemplated. He has, however, the satisfaction of saying that no effort has been omitted by him to give it to the public at an earlier period. The delay has arisen from the revision of the speeches of the Managers and Counsel. The publication might long since have been made in a less perfect dress; but it was deemed highly desirable that in a case, which, independently of its own importance, might be a precedent in future times, to sacrifice time rather than precision. The work now appears before the public with the expectation of the Editor that it will be considered as meriting the character of an impartial, comprehensive and faithful statement of facts. All the speeches have been revised, and inserted at length, in connection with whatever else formed a part of the trial.

Editors of other prints will confer a benefit by inserting this advertisement a few times in their papers.

March 24—

Notice is hereby given that the subscriber intends to petition the next county Court for Washington, to be held in the territory of Columbia, for an order to renew the lower ferry over the Eastern Branch, what was generally known by the name of Barry's ferry.

JEREMIAH BOOTHE.

Washington, May 16—2aw3w

IS hereby given that unless the tax due to the Washington Corporation from the following persons be paid on or before the 28th day May next, the following property or so much thereof as will satisfy the tax and other charges due thereon, will on that day be offered at public sale to the highest bidder.
