DEC 23 1918

FOR THE SOLDIER THAT FIGHTS FOR YOU

PUBLISHED BY MARGARET PAYNE GAUSS
ROCHESTER, N.Y.

M1646
.R

For The Soldier That Fights For You

Words by MARGARET PAYNE GAUSS

Music by
FRED ALBERT REYNOLDS

Tempo Moderato

f

VOICE

A - mer - i - ca is call - ing man - y sol - diers, From ev - 'ry where they're sing - ing as they
If all the stars were on a flag to - geth - er, O, what a great big em - blem it would go, Boys from the sun - ny land of Dix - ie, And the be, To count one star for ev - 'ry sol - dier That shores of Lake On - ta - ri - o. From 'Fris - co all the way to joins the might - y ar - my o'er the sea. For while they're marching on to

mf

Do - ver, San An - to - ni - o to Kal - a - ma - zoo, You can bat - tle, Man - y are the friends a - cross the foam Who are

Copyright MCMXVIII by Margaret Payne Gauss.
All rights reserved.

see a flag in the win - dow, With a lit - tle star of blue!
keep - ing stars in the win - dows, Till the boys come sail - ing home!

CHORUS

Hang up a lit-tle star in the win - dow, For the sol-dier that dreams of you, O-ver

mf

by the River Rhine, In that Hindenburgen line, Fight-ing till this weary war is through. But they'll soon go marching in, To the cit - y of Ber-lin, With the flag of the Red, White and-Blue, For way back home there's a flag in the win - dow, For the sol-dier that fights for you.

rit. ff

445469