MAR 12 1920

©CIE474315

FLAG OF THE U. S. A.

WORDS BY FLETA A. POWELL
MUSIC BY HECTOR RICHARD

M1646
R

PUBLISHED BY
Legters Music Co.
CHICAGO

Flag of the U.S.A.

Words by FLETA A. POWELL

Music by HECTOR RICHARD

spirited

f

Our dear old flag of the U. S. A. Still waves o'er the land of the free —— Oh, the
With our great flag al-ways in the lead There's none that can ex - ceed —— The hearts of the brave ev - er strive to save The rights of her lib - er - ty, —— And the heart of a nation so rare for in God we trust, And lead us he sure-ly must, —— That hands of the true will ev - er keep new The flag of our country so fair. ——

p

we in his glo - ry may share, Old Glory wave O'er the homes of the brave. —— rit.

Slow and expressive

Red is for the sig - nal, A warn-ing to all men; White is for the spir-it of life That Red is for the real true blood That thro' our veins flows free. White is for the dove of peace That

p

Copyright, MCMXX, by Fleta A. Powell lives for-ev-er with-in, Blue is for the bright blue sky That pleases ev-'ry eye, The guards our lib-er-ty. Blue is for the hearts of truth To our country and to God, The stars are like the child of God, As none can pass them by, And the bright and true lit-tle stars In the heav-en-ly field Will

CHORUS. Spirited

stripes like the rain-bow on high, So give three cheers for A-mer-i-ca, And crown us near and far.

f dim. cres. mf

give three cheers for the flag, Then give three more big rous-ing cheers For a love that will not die. Now one more cheer to com-bine all three, Our dount-ry, our flag and our lib-er-ty In the grand old U. S. A.

rit

485310