©CIE488009 AUG -7 1920

FOR OLD GLORY

WORDS BY
C. HUDDLESTON
MUSIC BY HECTOR RICHARD

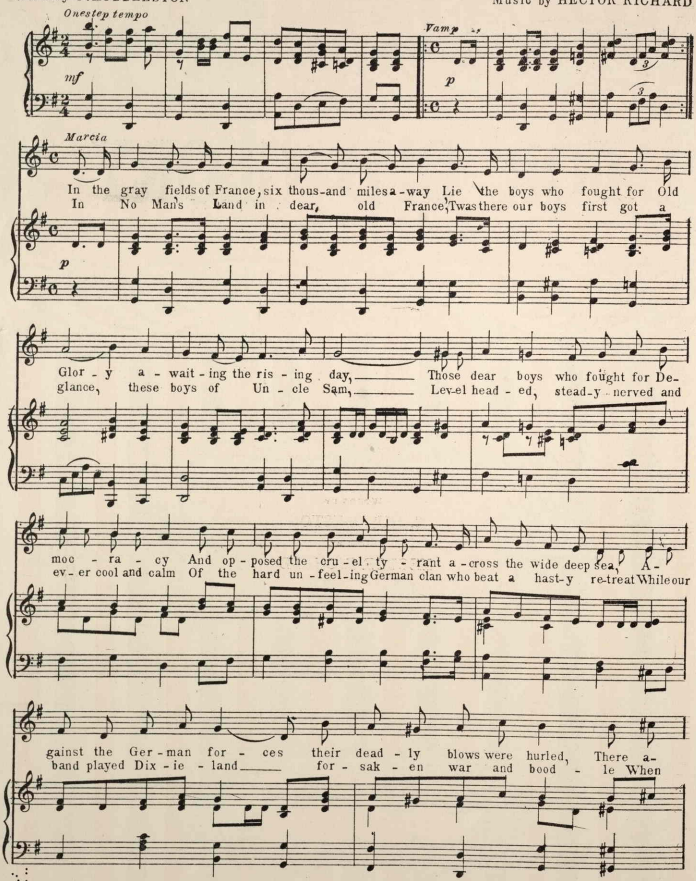
PUBLISHED BY
R. Legters Music Co.
CHICAGO

For Old Glory

Words by C. HUDDLESTON

Music by HECTOR RICHARD



2202

Copyright MCMXX by C. Huddleston

mid the thick-est bat-tle fur-y was Old Glor-y still un-furled.
our boys struck up the tune of Yan-kee Doo-dle.

CHORUS One step tempo

Then three cheers for A-mer-i-ca, the land of fear-less men And three Then three cheers for our Al-lies, they're some of the fin-est men Who are mf

cheers for our boys their coun-try to de-fend All for the sake of Old read-y their coun-try al-ways to de-fend All for the sake of Old

Glor-y Which hath nev-er known de-feat All for the Glor-y That does not stop at de-feat All for the cause of vic-tor-y with a vic-tor-y that was com-plete.

cause of vic-tor-y with our Al-lies we are hard to beat.

497216