APR -2 1920

©CIE474779

JUST A YEAR AGO TO-DAY

WORDS BY
CHARLES D. BLUMENAUER

MUSIC BY HECTOR RICHARD

PUBLISHED BY R Legters Music Co.
CHICAGO

Just A Year Ago To-Day

Words by CHARLES D. BLUMENAUER

Music by HECTOR RICHARD

Valse moderato

mp

Just a year a - go to - day I left my home to
But a few let - ters did I re - ceive Tell - ing me the hap - pi -

p

go a - way To a sun - ny land, they say, Where ness back home; Just to think how oft I was de - ceived, For peo - ple sport night and day. When I sail the deep blue our camp was not like home. When I got word to sail for sea, I knew my moth - er was thinking of me, For she was ver - y U. S. A., What a bur - den 'twas that left my soul, For to be on your

Copyright, MCMXX, by Charles D. Blumenauer

fond of thee, And it was - n't a day she missed writ - ing to me.
home - ward sway Would make man - y a brave and true heart feel bold.

CHORUS

For now I am back to Home Sweet Home To a land I hold so dear, Where

mp

I can go for a roam, And our soul has no fear. I am back to the land I a - dore, Back to the land I love. Let us all thank God more and more For He rul - eth and sent the peace dove.

488202