The Sammies Are In France

Arranged to the Old Time Marching Airs

Words by C. D. BROWN

All° Moderato

Tempo di Marcia

f

Per-shing and his khaki boys are fighting now in France, And started up the mu-sic that will make the Kaiser dance, They'll chase him up and down the Rhine as onward they ad-vance, And then they'll go marching to Ber - lin.

Tramp, tramp, tramp, our boys are march-ing, Cheer up Al-lies more will come, We've ten

mil-lions good and strong, Who will fight to right the wrong, That was car-ried in to fire-side and home.

Yan-kee Doo-dle Kha-ki boys, will make the Prussians hur-ry, Our aer-o-planes will clear the skies, Oh Al-lies do not wor-ry, Un-cle Sam can do no harm von Hin-den told the Kai-ser, But when they heard the ea-gle scream they both be-came much wis-er. We'll fol-low them up, We'll fol-low them up, We'll fol-low them up to Ber-lin, We'll fol-low them up, We'll fol-low them up, We'll fol-low them up on a run.

f poco rall.

For we'll have them there from Dix-ie, the North, East, West, And ev-'ry man is sure to stand, because he is a Sam-my, Hoo-ray, hoo-ray, We're going to make them wis-er, Hoo-ray, hoo-ray, We're going to "can the Kai-ser."
