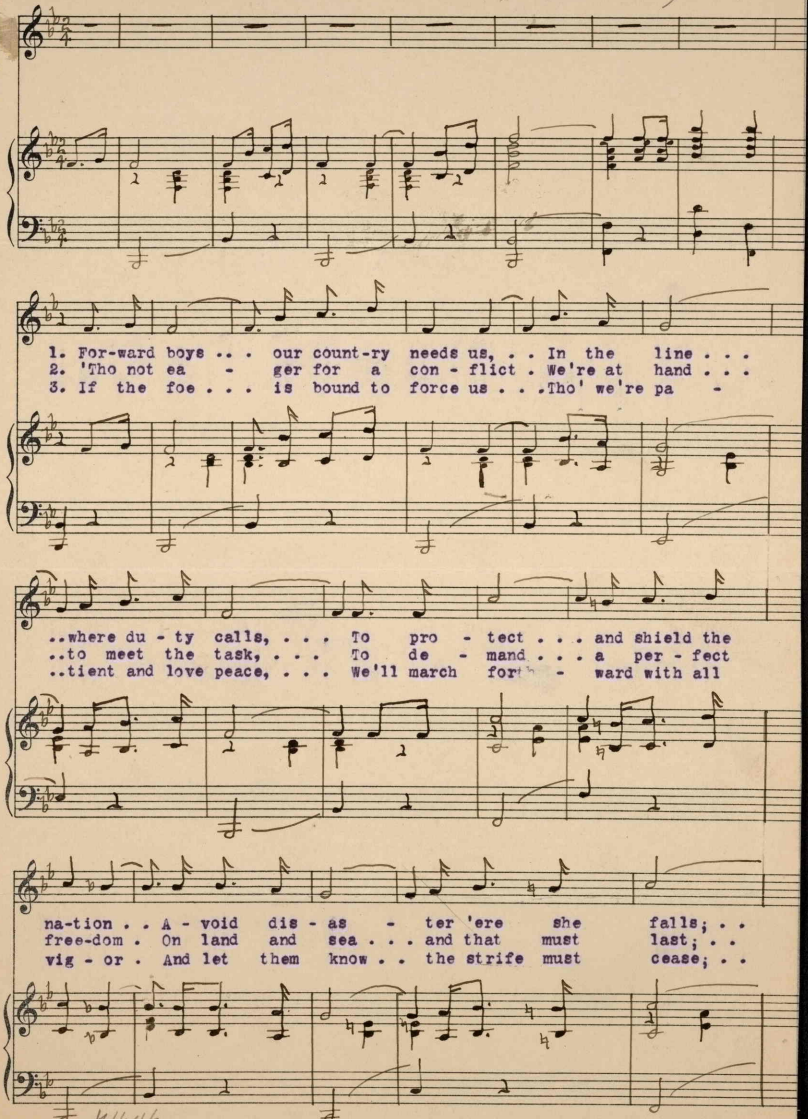
APR -9 1917
©CLE404154

AT YOUR SERVICE, UNCLE SAM.

Words and music by
C. M. Senseman.



H1646
.S

Copyright applied for.

Carl Fischer, New York.
No. 10 – 12 lines.

C. M. SENSEMAN,
424 EAST 149th STREET,
NEW YORK CITY.

©CLE404154

APR -9 1917

. . Ev 'ry moth - ers son will an-swer . . Who is no -
. . So we'll shoul - der arms to geth-er . . As our dads
. . when the bat - tle then is o - ver . And the vict-

. . ble, firm and true, . . . To the col - ors of our
. . in days of yore, . . . Stand for lib - er - ty at
. . 'ry we have won, . . . 'Twas the ar - my and the free land , . Which we love, ... red, white and blue. . . . . .

all times, . For Col - um - bia ev - er more. . . . . .
na - vy, . Praise to ev - 'ry no - ble son. . . . . .

CHORUS.....

At your serv-ice Un-cle Sam . . . . . For we know you'll do your

Carl Fischer, New York.
No. 10—12 lines.

APR -9 1917

best. . . . . For A mer-i - ca and her rights, When you're forced to make the test, ... To be neu-tral you have tar - ried,. An all-wise way to per--sue, . . . At your serv-ice Un-cle

Sam . . . Boys of the flag, red, white and blue. . . .

Carl Fischer, New York.
No. 10 —12 lines.

403986