©CLE440159

Silver, Abner.

Can you say that you've done your share.

M1646
.S

Can You Say That You've Done Your Share?

Words by Henry Fink & Lew Porter

Music by Abner Silver

Copyright 1918 by Jos. W. Stern & Co. New-York.

Recitation:
use after Chorus

In after years to come, When your married, and your son looks up and says "Daddy, did you go?" Will you

Chorus

When the bat - tles are o - ver in the days bound to come, Can you say that you've done your share? Can you tell your boy the truth, were you a slacker in your youth? And your answer must be "yes" or "No." When you hear tales of victory, won in tell all your neighbors, That due to your la - bors, Our rights have been won "O - ver there?" Can you say to the next gen - e - ra - tion, That you helped our flag fly in the air; Some foreign land, Have you pride in your heart, When you gave no helping hand? (Finish by singing)

When the war clouds roll a - way, And there comes a peace-ful day, Can you say that you've done your share? When the share?

1 2

446558