JUN 20 1919 © CI E452580

LYRIC BY R. S. OLINGER

MUSIC BY ARTHUR STANLEY

Dreaming By The Campfire

THE PUBLISHER'S SERVICE BUREAU
Washington, D. C.

H1646
.S

Dreaming By the Campfire

R. S. OLINGER

ARTHUR STANLEY

Tempo di Marcia

We are dream - ing by the camp - fire Some-where in France to - While we dream, and fight and won - der, And pray for the end to mp

night, And tho' 'tis dark and storm - y, The whole wide come, The joy of vic - try and hon - or Will nev - er world seems bright. Tho' the night of war sur-rounds us, And for the come to some. Yet we'll hon - or, love them, al - ways, And keep their

Copyright, 1919, by R. S. Olinger time hides all that's bright, Yet we'll not fear nor mem - o - ries all bright, The brave boys who went fal - ter, For with the day will come the light.

o - ver And made a vic - try of the fight!

CHORUS

Dream-ing by the camp-fire, And this is what we see: Love, home and coun-try Safe through vic - to - ry! ry!

463825