©CLE411700 2 NOV 14 1917

THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

A SONG OF WORLD DEMOCRACY

WRITTEN AND COMPOSED BY

J. AUSTIN SPRINGER

ALBANY MUSICAL BUREAU
ALBANY, N.Y.

5

M1646
.S

The United States of America!

A Song of World Democracy

Written and Composed by
J. AUSTIN SPRINGER

Tempo di Marcia

(This verse can be used "ad lib" after verse 3.)

The Kais - er thought this coun - try was un - pre - pared. With

1. A - mer - i - ca has called us, our hearts are brave. The
2. With cour - age we march for - ward to vic - to - ry. Our
3. Co - lum - bia will de - stroy all au - toc - ra - cy. The mill - ions in our ar - my "we've got him scared!" We're hon - or of our na - tion we pledge to save. Then lives we give for free - dom and lib - er - ty. With world will then be safe for de - moc - ra - cy. And buy - ing bonds in bill - ions, Oh say, he had "some dream!" Till he on - ward, up - ward look - ing, the call we will o - bey, songs that ring tri - umph - ant, we're in this fight to stay, With the peace will reign for - ev - er, God speed the glor - ious day,

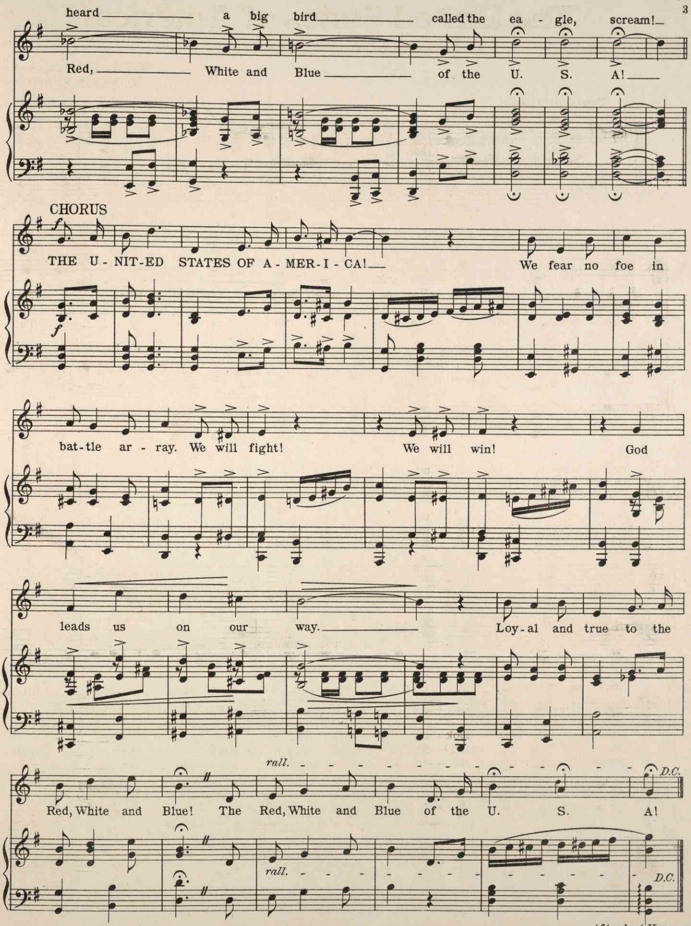
Copyright MCMXVII by the Albany Musical Bureau, Albany, N.Y.

Orchestrations of this song, in either F, G, or A♭ furnished without charge to professional singers, if program is sent.



After last Verse repeat Chorus ff

420274