WHAT SHALL I DO WITH MY UNIFORM

By Geo. C. Anderson & Bonny B. Tapscott

Intro.

Voice.

What shall I do with my u-ni-form I heard a sol-dier say ~~~ what shall I do with my u—ni—form I've worn by night and day ~~~ The kai-ki makes a good fel-low of you when it is worn for the red white and blue— In grand-fath-er's chest I'll lay it a-way there to re— pose with the blue and grey— What shall I do with my u-ni-form, it served me oh so well—

Chorus

What shall I do with my u— ni—form I wore while oth—ers fell— To my dear kai-ki I'll e're be true, though but-tons are gone and it's shot clear through—I'll put it in grand—fath—er's wood—en chest, with the blue and the grey to rest—
