© CIE474085
MAR 11 1920

Yankee Division Dandy.

Words by Dagmar G. Lamb, Music by Geo. Trevor.

Tempo di Marcia.

mf

1. Once up on a time, for — auld lang syne, Our boys went
2. Our boys did n't care, 'cause the crowd was there, On earth, from

mf

to a foreign clime, — To con- quer might with div-sea and in the air, — "I was then the Hun retreated

ART BRAND No 4 M1646 T

Copyright 1920 by Dagmar G. Lamb

ine right; These boys were not too proud to fight.
in fright, Sur-prised by those he said could n't fight.

Chorus mf-f

Yankee Di-vis-ions, bo, bo, bo, New England boys the first to

mf-f

go. The "Yankee" of the East, and the "Rainbow" of the West, North and South, all gave of their best. They did not stop to reason why, but for

rit a tempo

Yankee doodle doo, and the Red, White and Blue They went forth to do or die. My

rit a tempo

Yankee di- vis- ions, ho, ho, ho; My Yankee marines, yo, yo yo; My Yankee land's — dough, dough, dough; Prove they get what they want af- ter. af- ter. —

486062