DELIVERED TO THE
DON'T FORGET THE OLD FOLKS.
MAY 7 - 1900
Words by Mrs. M. A. Stoner.
Music Department

Music by B. S. DISE.

1. Don't forget the old folks, Let your words be ten-der,	Love them more and more, Loving, soft, and low ;	As they turn their Let their last days
2. Don't forget poor fa-ther Tho' he may be child-ish,	With his fail-ing sight, Still do you be kind,	With his locks once Think of him as longing eyes T ward the golden shore ; be the best They have known below.	Don't forget the old folks, Life will soon be thick and brown, Scanty now, and white ; years ago, With his master mind.	Don't forget the old folks, etc.

o'er ; Guide them till their weary feet Tread the gold-en shore.

Don't forget dear mother,
With her furrowed brow,
All the light of other years
Time has faded now ;
Memory is waning,
Soon its light will fail,
Guide her gently till she stands
Safe within the vale.
