"Come Back To Me, My Soldier Boy!" Mr. Marion Foor.

1

Come back to me, my soldier boy, a soldier brave and true;
You did your duty for the Grand old Flag, the dear Red, White, and Blue.

2

A tear I shed when he was led to a station, off for France,
Around his waist he wore a belt of lead, to make the Kaiser dance!

3

The Kaiser fled, the Yankees said: "We'll soon be homeward bound!"
Those tears all shed down by the station red, will soon be smiles in town!"

4

When the ship lands by ocean's sand, and docks to take me home,
I listen --band is playing Dixie Land--and boys sing Home, Sweet Home!

CHORUS.

The grand old band playing Dixie Land,
And the boys singing Home Sweet Home,
The Grand Old Flag on Berlin land--
We planned when we went across the foam!
