"A Hero Mother" By Florence Brewer Meredith.

Twas at a training camp in Arkansaw;a mother bid her darling boy good bye;
"Go forth" said she" go forth across the sea; and fight the battle for humanity
Go join the Allies, where our colors fly;upon the battlefield where heroes lie"

CHORUS.

Three cheers for the Stars and Stripes;Three cheers for the Flags of our Allies
We'll win the fight for our Cause is right---good bye,my boy,my hope and delight

2

America and her brave Allies they are fighting for the Cause that surely lies,
So near to ev'ry loyal mother's heart;so bravely go and fight with sword and gun
And win the fight against the cruel Hun; for Uncle Sammy and his Allies,son.

3

Then carry out the Stars and stripes to France;
And give the Kaiser's cruel Huns no chance;
Just make them run,untilthey sink and fall;
Til Kaiser Bill so loud for peace does call;
Good bye,my son,a hero you must be;
It is for life,and death,and liberty.
